

Bend Library seeks artists

Tribal art would be displayed from Nov. through Jan.

The Bend Library is planning an exhibit of art works by Warm Springs tribal members.

"A group of us from the library art committee visited the tribal art show, and we were very impressed with the artwork," said Kay Bauman, who is coordinating the show for the library.

Bauman said she is seeking tribal members who are interested in having their artwork shown at the library.

The library has a few cases and shelves for three-dimensional artwork, and space for about 40 to 50 two-dimensional artworks that would hang on the walls of the second floor of the library.

Minimum size for framed art is 16 by 20 inches.

Artworks may or may not be for sale. Art for sale must have a purchase price. The library does not take a commission.

The phone number of the artist will be on the label, and anyone wishing to purchase art will contact the artist directly.

The show will run from Nov. 16 to Jan. 31. Artwork should be delivered on Nov. 9 or Nov. 10, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Artwork would then be picked up after the show on Feb. 1 or Feb. 2, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Beaders gather Thursdays

Workshops at museum

A beading workshop is being held on Thursday evenings through November in the Education Room of The Museum at Warm Springs.

The workshops, on Thursdays from 6 to 8:30 p.m., are open to experienced and non-experienced beading artists.

The workshops are a place to meet old friends and make new ones. Instruction is not included, but the floor is open for anyone present who wishes to share beading knowledge and experience. There is a $5 per month facility user fee, or a person can pay a flat fee of $15 for three months.

Please find a baby-sitter because small children are not allowed during the workshops. Older children are welcome to join the group with their beading projects.

Please bring your beads, beading material and beading projects to The Museum's Education Room.

For more information call 553-3331.
