

A memorable Veterans Parade

On Saturday in Warm Springs, veterans marched from the area of the memorial by the courthouse building, to the community center, where dinner was served.

The photo at lower right is of the ROTC, and below, Sid Miller and other veterans prepare for a salute to veterans who have passed away.

Auxiliary recognized for accomplishments

By Neda Wesley
Auxiliary Secretary

Three engraved plaques were awarded to the local Ladies Auxiliary from the State of Oregon and one from the national headquarters.

The awards were to be presented at the Oregon State VFW Post and Auxiliary last June. However, none of the ladies were able to be there. The plaques and citations were presented at the District VFW meeting in Prineville on Oct. 13.

Attending the presentation were President Eliza Brown, Hilda Culpus and Neda Wesley.

The citations were in honor of 150 percent membership, donations and participation in honor of the deceased veterans or families, hours of volunteerism and involvement with the National Veterans programs.

Two new members were voted in at the last auxiliary meeting Oct. 23, with completion of an internal audit by our district president Jessie Sparks and Oregon VFW President Judy Jackson. The Ladies Auxiliary welcomes Madene Meanus and Roberta Suppah.

The Auxiliary is recognized as 100 percent in compliance with the books all in order. Good job ladies.

We have several fundraisers in the planning. One fundraiser is the Flea Market and Christmas Bazaar on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, at the Agency Longhouse.

Our responsibility as Post and Auxiliary members is to be available to help with the concession and donate items for the Christmas Bazaar and good used items for the flea market. The doors will open at 9 a.m. each morning.

The proceeds will be divided 50-50 with the Elliot Palmer Post 4217.

The Auxiliary members are also accepting donations for the raffle.

Hilda Culpus is the fundraiser chairperson. Contact Hilda at 553-1629.

The Auxiliary dues must be paid immediately, your reminders are in the mail.

The dues are $14 and the membership cars will be given to you upon receipt of your dues. Thank you.
