

Local ladies triumph at Reno tourney

Four Warm Springs ladies brought home the victory during a recent road trip to the Reno, Nevada All-Indian Bowling Tournament, held the weekend of March 15-17.

The destruction of opponents occurred in the Masters division of the Nevada tournament. The Warm Springs lady bowlers won in all divisions including the Masters A, B, and C categories.

Each division is based on the bowlers average with A Division being the highest. You must also be enrolled with a recognized tribe and be a member of the WIBC (Women's International Bowling Congress).

The ladies bowled four games against one another initially. The top five in each division then rolled off in a scratch series stair-step event.

Sheilah Clements was the winner of the C Division. Second place went to Edna David-Begay. Both ladies are accomplished bowlers and both have been highly regarded in local league events. During the Holiday Bowling Tournament held in Bend Clements won her 1st Masters event. Begay also rolled off against the defending champion CeCe Marin of Oakland, Calif. and came away the winner.

Birney Greene-Boise is also well known in the bowling circuit. She has many awards for her bowling excellence. Greene-Boise placed 2nd in the B Division Masters.

Sandra Greene-Sampson won 1st Place in the A Division Masters event. Greene-Sampson rolled off against top bowler Joy Grant from Ft. Duchene, Utah. Grant bowled a perfect game of 300 during the All-Indian holiday tournament.

Greene-Sampson was also selected last summer to represent Madras in the State Nationals held in Portland. She earned the honor because she had the highest average in all league events over the course of the regular season. Greene-Sampson is widely known for her bowling skills and her opponents know they must bowl their very best when they go up against her. Asked where she will bowl next Greene-Sampson stated she will be going to the All-Indian Bowling Tournament at Omak, Wash., April 12-14.

Swantown takes championship at Cougars tourney

The tenth annual All-Indian Boys Basketball Championships were held March 22-24 at the Warm Springs Community Wellness Center.

There were a total of nine boy's teams competing for the championship leather sleeve letterman award jackets.

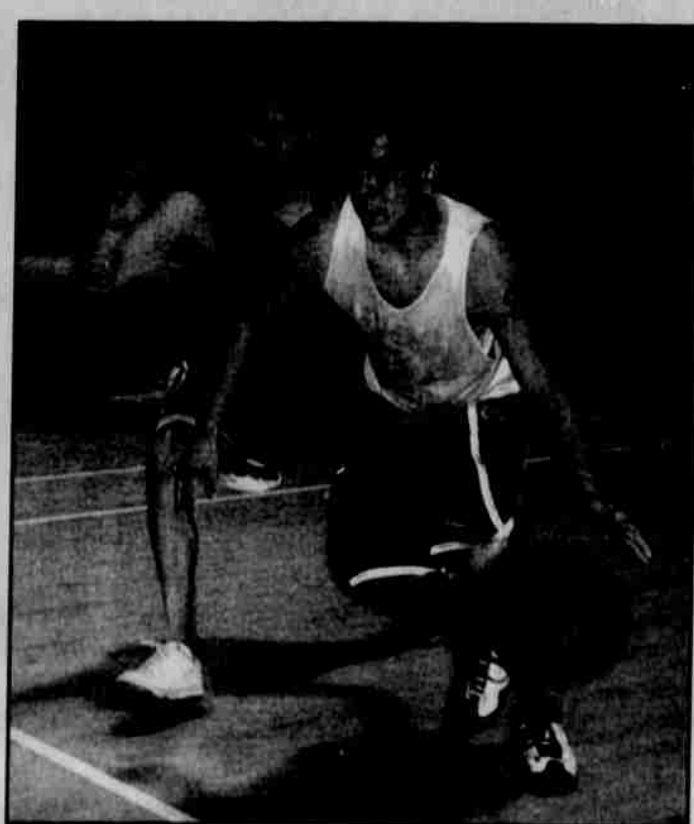

Taking the championship title was Swantown, of White Swan, WA. They defeated the Lummi No. 1 team in an action packed game. Throughout the game there were numerous lead changes and either team could have been ahead by one point. Swantown pulled ahead in the last quarter to win the championship.
