Appreciation for naming ceremony

Dear People,

We want to thank all those that came to our grand daughter Savannah Holliday's naming ceremony January 1, 2002 at Simnasho Long House. Our elders talked about New Year's Day as being a day to have Naming Ceremonies, and that is why that day was chosen. We also want to thank Freda Wallulatum for helping us with the name: Ayayat Chapashiat- "Beautiful Rainbow." It has taken us this long to develop the right film and share this with you. The word "ayayat" (beautiful) is in many Washut songs and when she gets older, we'll have to tell her to listen carefully to hear part of her name. For the rainbow name, one day Savannah went with us for a ride. During that time we seen three rainbows. One in Simnasho, another at Tygh Valley, and the other up by Goldendale, Washington. we felt there was a connection, so we wanted "rainbow" for her name also.

Thank you. Fred and Olivia Wallulatum.

Savannah's parents: Freddy Holliday and Rose Kirk.

Aunt Matilda with her niece Savannah. Doing what aunts do-giving support and encouragement.

Notice of Finding of No Significant Impact, and Notice of Intent to Request Release of Funds, May 30, 2002. The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, PO Box C, Warm Springs, OR 97761. 541-553-3270.

These notices shall satisfy two separate but related procedural requirements for activities to be undertaken by the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

Request for release of funds.

On or about June 28, 2002, the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs will submit a request to HUD for the release of Indian Community Development Block Grant funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, to undertake a project known as the Warm Springs Transitional Housing Facility, for the purpose of building a transitional housing facility, including up to eight apartments and related uses, on Hollywood Street next to the VFW Hall. The estimated cost for the project is $525,000, including construction, design, site development and related costs.

Finding of No Significant

Impact.

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs has determined that the project will have no significant impact on the human environment. Therefore, an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) is not required. Additional project information is contained in the Environmental Review Record (ERR) on file in the Planning Department within the Tribal Administration Building, 1233 Veteran Street in Warm Springs. The record is available for review and copying on non-holiday weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Public comments

Any individual, group, or agency disagreeing with this determination or wishing to comment on the project may submit written comments to the Warm Springs Planning Department, which is responsible for receiving and responding to comments. All comments received by June 28, 2002, will be considered by the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs prior to authorizing submission of a request for release of funds.

Release of Funds

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs certifies to HUD that Olney Patt, Jr., in his capacity as Chairman of the Tribal Council, consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to the environmental review process and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. HUD's approval of the certification satisfies its responsibilities under NEPA and related laws and authorities, and allows the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs to use Program funds.

Objections to release of funds

HUD will accept objections to its release of funds and the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs certification for a period of fifteen days following the anticipated submission date or its actual receipt of the request (whichever is later) only if they are on one of the following bases: (a) the certification was not executed by the Certifying Officer of the Confederated Tribes of

Public notice

To Raymond Gene Smith, PO Box 1016, Warm Springs, OR 97761

Mr. Raymond Gene Smith, I have been trying to reach you by your cell phone until it was shut off. I then asked one of your friends to call you and have you call me. Two days later he called me and asked if you had called, you didn't. You have not called to check on your birds nor have you removed your personal items out of my garage and surrounding property like you said you would back on April 27.

Once again you leave me no choice.

I am hereby giving you public notice that you have until June 14, 2002 to remove your personal belongings from m1527 West Tenino Rd., Warm Springs, Oregon 97761 and the surrounding property. Come June 15, 2002 12:00 a.m. and thereafter, I will dispose of the items as I see fit. Your birds, Fred and Amy have a new home if you do not take ownership of them on or before June 14, 2002. Eight (8) months is more than ample time to find a place to live and/or store your personal items.

Thank you, Lori Courtney, date this 16th day of May, 2002
