"Language Revitalization and Community Involvement"

A workshop brought to you by the Culture & Heritage Department. You are invited to participate. The one-day event will be lead by a distinguished guest to the Warm Springs Reservation:

Akira Yamamoto

(Professor of Anthropology and Linguistics, University of Kansas)

Tuesday, August 13th, starting at 1:00 PM

Training Room (1st Floor)
Education Building

Please take time out to join us as we face the issues of language in the community.

Another session will be held on the topic of teacher training, as well.
For more information please contact Nariyo Kono at the Culture and Heritage Department (553-3290).
