

Tohet enjoying probate work

Richard Tohet is enjoying his job as the Warm Springs Probate Court judge.

"New and different things come up all the time in probate," said Judge Tohet, whose previous job was at the Warm Springs Forest Products Industries mill.

Judge Tohet worked at the mill, in a variety of different positions, for 32 years.

A while ago, he saw that he would soon have to leave mill-work, for medical reasons.

Judge Richard Tohet

He put in an application for the position of probate judge, but the first time around he did not get the position.

He was persistent, though, and over the summer he was hired on as the new probate judge.

Judge Tohet oversees a staff of two, Mona Jim, who is the judge's assistant, and Josephine Wyman, probate clerk.

The probate offices and court hearing room are on the second floor, south end of the courthouse.

Judge Tohet took over as probate judge when Antoinette Pamperien retired.
