Graduation banquet set for June 19

The Tribal Education Committee this month will host the annual graduation banquet for the graduates. The annual graduation banquet for tribal members is set for Thursday, June 19, at the Agency Longhouse. The banquet is for high school, college and vocation/technical/GED graduates, and their family members and the community. The event includes a dinner and special recognition of tribal member accomplishments in receiving their diplomas, degrees or certificates.

The dinner is a 5 p.m., and the recognition and gift presentation starts at 7 p.m. Recent graduates are asked to please forward a copy of your diploma and graduation announcement to the Tribal Education Committee. The committee is requesting a copy of awards and special recognition that a student may have received for exceptional achievement in academics and sports. These accomplishments may include: honor role, National Honor Society, FFA, sports, scholarship awards, etc., while obtaining their high school diplomas, college degrees, or certificates. The accomplishments will be recognized at the graduation banquet. The committee requests that this information be sent to: Tribal Education Secretary, PO Box C, Tribal Council, Warm Springs, Oregon 97761. Please call the Tribal Education Secretary at 553-3258 for further information. It is important to receive this information from the student or family member in order to recognize, honor, and celebrate their accomplishments.

Clinic hosting Health Fair

The Pi-Ume-Sha Health Fair will be from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. on Tuesday, June 24. The Health Fair will be at the Warm Springs Health and Wellness Center (clinic). The keynote speaker of the fair will be Sam McCracken, Native American business manager of Nike Inc. The Health Fair will include raffle drawings, screenings, information, free food and free water. For information, contact Yvonne Iverson, 553-3225.

Road Warriors run set for June 28

The Warm Springs Recreation Department invites you to participate in the 2003 Pi-Ume-Sha Road Warriors Run Saturday, June 28, 7:30 a.m. at the administration building. The Pi-Ume-Sha Road Warriors Run is one of many events taking place in conjunction with the Pi-Ume-Sha Treaty Days Celebration held June 27-29 in Warm Springs.

Race registration begins at 7:30 a.m. and 10K and 5K races begin at 8:30 a.m. sharp. The course is out and back, all black-top pavement. Water stations will be located at the 1.5 and 3.1 mile markers.

There are seven age categories for male and female. They are: 13 & under, 14-18, 19-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, and 60 & over.

Ribbons are given to the top three to finish in each age category for both male and female races.

Registration is $12 before June 28 with t-shirt; $15 on day of race with t-shirt; $8 without t-shirt. Registration includes raffle ticket for door prize.

For information or to request entry forms contact Recreation at 541-553-3243; fax 541-553-1361.

Simon Jim, Johnnie LeClaire and Eric LeClaire

Wildhorse race champions

Rodeos are fun for three local boys and they have competed in several rodeos throughout the Northwest. Johnnie LeClaire, Eric LeClaire and Simon Jim came home from the Yakama Nation with belt buckles after taking the championship in the Wild Horse Race in the youth events. They continue their rodeo competition and keep up preparation for these events as they plan on continuing their competition. They received congratulations from their grandparents Grandma Phyllis, and Grandpa Alex, "to my grandsons, keep up the good work rodeoing, don't let your heads swell up too big. But be yourselves and enjoy the summer clean and don't try to be wannabes."

Free meals for children

All children 18 years and younger can come to the Warm Springs Community Wellness Center from June 23 through July 18 for a free meal. Time: from 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Local sponsor is the School District 509-J.

For the second time... Warm Springs captures blue ribbon at Grand Floral Parade

Plagued with mechanical problems, the Confederated Tribes' entry in the Rose Festival Grand Floral Parade June 10 limped through the streets of Portland but was striking enough to earn a first place in the category of Civic Groups.

The grace and charm of Miss Warm Springs Jackie Estimo and her grandmother Lucinda Smith more than compensated for the jarring effect of a man's torso emerging from the fir grove at the rear of the float and the unceremonious presence of a tow truck out front.

The two ladies, who endured hours of cold and rain to greet thousands of spectators, returned to Warm Springs with a plaque and ribbon commending the tribes' second float and second blue ribbon.

Following the parade theme of "Hooray for Hollywood" the forested Warm Springs float commemorated "Three Warriors," the film made here on the reservation two years ago. But again, the float suffered a malady—this time a split personality.

Change is not easy when it isn't chosen.

That is why it was difficult for Warm Springs to say goodbye to Presbyterian minister Calvin Chinn and his family, who left this week for a new life in San Anselmo, California. The Chinn's have chosen to change directions and we who became so accustomed to their friendship must adapt to their decision and the hole it leaves in our community. As with any loss it is painful for a time, but we find ways to cope and even grow.

After five and half years in Warm Springs it was time for Calvin to return to academia. It was time for Nancy to surround herself with fellow painters. It was time for their kids to find new challenges in another school.

Warm Springs girls at the top

The Warm Springs girls' team coached by Teddy Tanewasha is holding a strong lead over all in the Major League Softball Division. There are eight teams in the division and these girls played five and won five. The girls played a game against Olsen Seed from Madras and won 10-6, Monday June 12 in Warm Springs.

Loan applications on hold until July

The Tribal Credit enterprise will not be accepting loan applications from June 9 to June 30, due to current backlog. Applications will be accepted for home loans, business loans, and emergency situations (funerals and medical) during this time. Applications for personal loans will be accepted July 1. The credit department thanks you for your cooperation.
