

Exhibit features variety of artworks

By Dave McMechan

There are always some interesting surprises at the annual Tribal Member Art Show at the Museum at Warm Springs.

The exhibit features inspired artwork by local people who have been practicing their craft for many years.

But the show also includes the work of people who may be relatively new to the field. And for this reason the Tribal Member Art Show always includes some interesting and pleasant surprises.

The work of Reva Johnson is a good example.

Johnson makes beaded statues. At the Tribal Member Art Show she has on display two beaded horses, and a beaded eagle.

Johnson also displayed her artwork at the Kah-Nee-Ta gallery. Some of her artwork is for sale, and some is not.

Johnson, who works at Fire

This beaded deer head is an example of the type of artwork that Reva Johnson has been working on.

Management, began making the beaded statues "because it was a challenge," she said.

Anyone wishing to talk with Johnson about her artwork can call 553-0467.

Support from Homecoming queen is much appreciated

Please accept my thanks on behalf of my entire family for supporting my daughter Tatum Jareen Kalama when she was crowned the Homecoming Queen.

Our thanks go out to the students for showing their support by voting for her. It was their votes that made her the queen.

Many kind relatives showed their support by being with us at the game. Others helped out by allowing us to be in their home to get ready.

More help with the expenses, that is, with the hairdo and makeup.

Veronica Smith and Len Govia graciously supported us by providing their car for the parades.

They were especially impressed with how Eugene and Tatum approached them and asked for the support on their own.

To name a few people I would like to thank Sharon Katchia, Margie Kalama, Jim and Julie Quaid, Yvonne Iverson, and Amelia Colwash.

I could go on and on with the names, but any way, we are so happy to have this memory in our lives.

God bless you all.
Annie Kalama

Powwow videos and CD's

Videos of the 2003 Pi-Ume-Sha Powwow are available by calling 553-0309, ask for James or Hamilton Greeley. The videos are $10 to $12. They feature up-close footage of the Grand Entries, and dance contests. Videos of the 2003 July-amsh powwow are also available.

Lesson learned

I would like to take this time to say that I am very sorry for what I did back in May. I know what I done was wrong and wasn't right. That is why I am sitting in jail. And I feel that I have learned my lesson. So again I am very sorry.

Jimmy Tohet Jr.

Feeling better

Hello, my name is Linda and I'm an alcoholic/addict. Saying this was very hard for me to admit. I am an alcoholic/addict after 30 some years of drinking and using.

Being here at NARA Treatment made me realize I had another chance at life. I've learned a lot of what I had done to myself, my family and especially to my elders, and to our children - our future. Most of my life I was powerless, and my life was unmanageable, knowing I was in denial and being resentful to everyone and everything around me, thinking I was someone I really wasn't. I always wanted to be with the crowd, didn't want to be left out. The more I drank, the sicker I was getting not having feelings for anybody but feeling sorry for myself.

I also had a spiritual awakening finding out there is a great spirit. I found out that he is always around. I blamed him for all the losses of family and friends, but deep down in my heart and my gut I knew he wasn't to blame. I know now they were sick of some disease, like cancer, like my mother and sister, Pebbles. A lot of others due to suicides, murder, and alcohol or drugs.

I have seen myself grow with more respect for my elders, higher power and our children. I've learned to be more responsible, have faith and how to cherish my values and morals for myself, how to forgive and let go.

Today I am more healthy, more self-aware of my actions, happier. I'm very grateful for being alive still clean and sober. It does really work and I challenge those who are still drinking and using to give it a break, live another day and try treatment, it'll help you.

I pray for you, our elders, and grandkids and for those who need it one day at a time. I may sound like I'm acting too good but I'm not. I have concern for my people and I love all of you with all my heart. If you want to write to me, my address is Linda Meanus c/o Patton House 4619 N. Michigan Ave. Portland, Oregon 97217. Thank you.

An apology

Apology for my alcohol induced behavior on Sept. 9 and Oct. 2., to officers Beron, Paul Jim, Aaron Whittenburg and a few others I don't recall.

To persons, community and foremost family, forgive me for my problems, for the hurt and stress plus anger I've created, the "chaos" is at rest. Jail has had an impact mentally and some emotionally, being locked out of society. While waiting for this sentence to expire, I've been educating myself to be a more productive person rather than a nuisance. For my mistakes I apologize, for DUI, assault, etc., consequences I've endured. Thanks for the time. Respectfully,

Caleb Paul Jim

Sorry to all

I, Jay Henry, am sorry for driving under the influence on Oct. 11 at about 2:15 p.m. I wrecked my '64 Chevy pick-up in West Hills.

I apologize to the Rez, I am sorry to all. I had one too many beers that day. Love,

Jay

Birthday and other wishes...

Birthday wishes to those who share my birth date on October 28: Poopsie, Daisy, Sandra.

Happy wishes and good health, we made it another year! Take care and have a very happy birthday and a happy Halloween.

Also to my baby girl Amy Bobb, happy birthday, babe, on November 8.

Congratulations Duran on the purchase of your new house, you deserve it. Love Mom. As always, Myrna Frank.

Happy fourth birthday, Genesis J. Lucci. Love always, mom Toni Boise.

Owners asked to claim impounded vehicles

Several vehicles are currently in the Warm Springs Impound Lot. Letters were mailed out to the last registered owners on Sept. 4, giving the owners 30 days to retrieve the vehicles. Some of the listed vehicles now have different owners. This is an opportunity to the current owners of these vehicles to come forward with proof of ownership.

Some of these vehicles have an outstanding bill, which will need to be paid in full before retrieval is possible.

With this publication the owners are notified that in 15 days the vehicles will be destroyed, if they are not retrieved. The vehicles in question are described as follows (with Oregon plate number given first, followed by vehicle description and its color):
FJS081, 1975 Pontiac Grand Le Mans, 4-door, orange.
