

Apologies

To the community of Warm Springs, My name is Heather Duncan. On May 1, 2004, I was pulled over for driving under the influence of alcohol. I deeply regret ever making the decision to get behind the wheel. I would like to apologize to the community for my actions. I would also like to apologize to my family for the worry I have caused them. Sincerely, Heather Duncan

Warm Springs community, I apologize for the choices I made while not in my right mind. There are other choices I should have made and I have learned from my mistakes. Thank you for your time. J. Johnson.

I, Nathan Napyer, would just like to write this to sincerely apologize for my actions towards the West Hills community, Jaime Reynoso and the Detectives Department. I'm sorry for all the trouble that was caused, my consequence is being paid, and I'm hoping nothing more comes about this situation. Nathan Napyer.

My name is Marco Smith and I would like to apologize for my actions on March 27, 2004. I was driving under the influence of intoxicants. I'm glad nobody got hurt for my actions and I'm sorry. Sincerely, Marco L. Smith.

To the Warm Springs community, I am writing an apology letter for driving under the influence of intoxicants in the fall of last year. I assure you it will not happen again and I am sorry for my trouble that I caused. Rod Wesley.

Dear Warm Springs, I would like to apologize to the community and my two partners who were riding with me on the third of March, 2004, around 1 a.m. when I got stopped and detoxed then charged with driving under the influence and reckless endangering. I hope you can forgive me for my wrong doings. I'm sorry. Sincerely, Eugene Gorden Wewa.

My mistakes are the brakes that make me realize the unnecessary risks I take. To the community of Warm Springs, please accept my apologies for getting a DUII on the rez. I shouldn't have given my friend a ride or have driven that night. I'm sorry. Albert Bryant.

On April 24 I was intoxicated and had an argument with my girlfriend. My girlfriend's daughter intervened and I got arrested and detoxed. I am sorry and would like to apologize to Dawn and Shannon. Tilden McDonald.

Gardening

We have the Xeriscape Plant Guide in the OSU Master Gardener's reference area. We would love to have you come in and take a look. We can also give you lists of native plants that may enhance your garden. We will be giving a talk on Xeriscaping at the Plant Clinic in August.

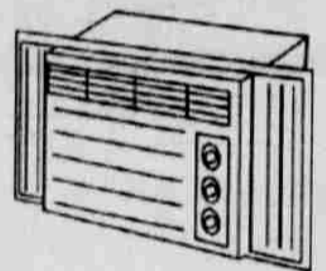

Don't forget to make a note in your calendar to attend this months plant clinic on Monday, July 26, from 12-1 p.m. at the OSU Extension Service office.

Several topics will be discussed including container gardening and fire resistant plants. The first eight people will receive a garden diary to write down important garden tips and plans. Plus, we will be serving snacks made from fresh summer fruits. Bring your lunch and we'll serve dessert.
