

Fall run at Kah-Nee-Ta this month

The Warm Springs Recreation Department is sponsoring the annual Kah-Nee-Ta Fall Run. The run is set for Saturday, Oct. 23, at Kah-Nee-Ta High Desert Resort and Casino.

The "Change of Pace" 10-kilometer (6.2-mile), and the two-mile fun run will begin at 10 a.m. at the Kah-Nee-Ta Village entrance.

Registration at the Village will begin at 8 a.m. for those wishing to register on the day of the race. The course for both races will be out and back.

Both male and female runners will be separated into age divisions for both races, as follows: 13 and under, 14-18, 19-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, and 60 and over. Medals will be awarded to top three runners in each category.

Pre-registration for these events is $10 when received by

Oct. 22. Day of the race registration fee is $15, and these include long sleeve T-shirt, a swim pass and a raffle ticket for various prizes. An $8 registration fee is offered and excludes the T-shirt.

For more information or registration mail-outs, please contact the Warm Springs Recreation Office at (541) 553-3243 or -3244.

Group files suit over gorge plan

THE DALLES, Ore. (AP) - A Columbia Gorge group has filed a federal lawsuit charging that the U.S. Department of Agriculture's recent approval of new rules regulating the national scenic area does not adequately protect the gorge's landscapes.

The lawsuit contends that the revised rules fail to protect forests, clean water, salmon habitat and farmland. They also say the plan exposes protected areas to excessive logging in the 80-mile section of the Columbia River Gorge.

The Columbia River Gorge Commission spent two years gathering information and recommendations from the public for changes to the 400-page management plan.

The U.S. Forest Service, a USDA agency, approved the plan in August. The suit was filed by Friends of the Columbia Gorge, and joined by Columbia Riverkeepers, 1000 Friends of Oregon and a group of gorge landowners.
