

Museum hosts holiday events

The Museum At Warm Springs will host many holiday events on Saturday, Dec. 18. These include an open house with free admission, a bead-artists art fair in the museum lobby, and the opening reception of the Beads To Buckskin exhibit.

The events are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The bead-artists art fair features tribal artists who have items for sale.

The Beads To Buckskin exhibit includes beautiful artifacts from the museum's permanent collection. Items include beaded regalia and accessories.

The Museum at Warm Springs Open House offers free admission to the public to see the award-winning museum.

The museum's gift shop has many holiday gift baskets, and other unique and wonderful items for sale for this holiday season.

The museum is now in its winter schedule.

It is open Wednesday through Sunday from 9 a.m. to

A beaded vest, made by Millie Queahpama when she was 100 years old, is an example of items on display during the Beads To Buckskins exhibit at the museum.

Course helps with college transition

Central Oregon Community College Warm Springs branch hosts a free program to assist students in the transition to college.

The series is in three parts on the following dates: Jan. 6, 20 and 27.

The program is located at the education building, second floor, in the GED classroom.

The first two sessions are instructed by Marjorie Gregory, a longtime COCC employee.

Topics covered include deciding on higher education, choosing a college, picking a major and advisor, identifying funding options, completing your application, academic resources and support services, and many many other topics.

OSU Extension's Emilee Hugie will present a cooking for college course including a cookbook for each participant Jan. 27.

The classes begin at 3 p.m. and end at 5 p.m.

Please call or e-mail to register so the branch may know how many to plan for. This program is free to the Warm Springs Community.
