

Lincoln's Birthday Powwow Court

Kayla Jones

Hello, my name is Kayla Jones. I am the granddaughter of the late Hester Carmalita Provo of Fort Duchesne, Utah, and the great granddaughter of the late Alice Bascum Cuch of White Rocks in Fort Duchesne. I am the oldest daughter of Flint and Celena Scott, and I am a resident of Warm Springs.

I attend school at Jefferson County Middle School, where I am on the Student Leadership Counsel. I am on the honor roll and also participate in track, cross-country and seventh-grade basketball. I also enjoy powwows and Fancy dancing.

I am involved in the local and surrounding communities, and I am the reigning Ms. Teen Queen for the State of Oregon. I am involved with John Robert Powers Acting Studio in Oregon and work with acting agents who also have clientele such as Hilary Duff. I have earned three modeling scholarships through pageant involvement.

My goals for the future are to attend Portland State University, and I would like to compete in the Olympics.

I would like to invite everyone out to the Lincoln's Powwow, and would greatly appreciate anyone wanting to purchase raffle tickets. For tickets, you can call 553-1240.

Cassi Tanewasha

Hello, my great relations and community members of Warm Springs.

My name is Cassi Tanewasha. I am 12 years old and in the seventh grade at Jefferson County Middle School. I am a Junior Queen candidate for the Lincoln's Birthday Powwow, February 11-13, and I am selling raffle tickets with a lot of prizes and cash prizes.

I am an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. My mom is Nellie Tanewasha and my grandparents are Pat Tanewasha and the late Lester Tanewasha Sr. My great grandparents are the late Lavina Quampets and Johnny Tanewasha.

In school my favorite subjects are math, life science, and drama. But most of all I like to hang out with my friends too.

My hobbies are jingle dress dancing, and playing volleyball, basketball and softball. Most of all I like to be on my computer and going to powwows.

My interests in running for Lincoln's Birthday Powwow are that I am getting to meet relatives that I didn't know that I had, and getting to meet new and old friends.

I will be selling tickets throughout the community. If I by chance had missed any person who would like to purchase raffle tickets, feel free to call my home phone at 553-2563 or contact my mom Nellie at DE Composite, 553-1143.

Thank you for your time, and your support is very much appreciated. Once again my great relations and fellow community members, come and enjoy the powwow. Thank you very much.

Event is Feb. 11-13

The Lincoln's Birthday Powwow, a celebration of tribal self-government and sovereignty, will be Feb. 11-13 at the Simnasho Longhouse.

Rheianna Rayann Wolfe

My name is Rheianna Rayann Wolfe, or "Tai-Ui-Pum." I was given this name that belonged to my great Grandpa Charley Stacona's aunt.

I'm Wasco/Yakama/Warm Springs and 7 years old and go to school at the Warm Springs Elementary. Cyril Wolfe is my Dad and Louisa Tuckta is my Mom. I live with my Grandpa Raymond Tsumpti Sr. and Grandma Beulah Tsumpti. My other paternal great grandparents were Jasper and Elvina Switzler.

On my Mom's side, great grandpa was Eugene "Cougar" Greene Sr. and great grandma is Norene Greene, and my grandparents, Margie and Joe Tuckta. I have three sisters and one brother.

I really like to powwow dance. I learned to dance from my Headstart teachers Shari Macy and Sylvia McCabe.

I am also taking ballet lessons in Madras, Oregon and really like it. So far, I've earned a Perfect Attendance award once this school year (missing only two half-days) and earned an Accelerated Reading T-Shirt. I'm now working toward an Accelerated Math award.

I love to read, draw and play on the computer.

I got real excited when Grandma told me that I was going to run for Junior Princess for the Lincoln's Powwow, and I know I'm going to have fun doing it. I'd like to invite everyone to buy tickets from me to help support Lincoln's Powwow. I'll be going out in the community after school. Good luck to all the other Senior and Junior candidates.
