New hires, promotion at resort

By Urbana Ross

Kah-Nee-Ta High Desert Resort and Casino offers congratulations to Amy Suppah, for her promotion to gift shop supervisor. In other recent news at the resort:

Nancy Collin of Indian Health Services conducted the food handlers certification class for 10 new food servers. Also, there have been 12 tribal members hired for the tourist high season. They are:

Susan Ahern, Crystal Thomas, MaryAnn Brito, Bernice Mitchell, Deece Suppah, Zachary Dowty, Laurissa Bellanger, Teryl Florendo, Rodney Estimo, Irene Boise, Amanda Tom and Kenny Sahme.

A helpful hint to people looking for work at the resort: When applying for a position, please keep your application current with a working telephone or cell phone number. Also, there are still plenty of positions available and great opportunities for summer employment.

Please contact the Human Resources Department to answer your questions.

(Urbana Ross is manager of the Kah-Nee-Ta tribal member recruitment and development program. She can be reached at 553-1112 ext. 3430.)

Events calendar

There will be showings of the methamphetamine-awareness movie *Downfall in Warm Springs on Wednesday, June 8 at the IHS clinic, in pod B. The movie will be shown for care providers and counselors from 11 a.m. till noon, and then to the general public at noon to 1 p.m. The movie, by director Hudson Duke White, was filmed in Madras, and chronicles the devastating effect of methamphetamines on people's lives and the community.

The American Association of Retired People (AARP) driver safety class will be held from 8 a.m. to noon Monday and Tuesday, June 13-14 at High Lookee Lodge. The two 4-hour classes qualify participants for auto insurance discount at age 55. All drivers welcome. $10 student fee. Important: Participants must be in the classroom and ready to start by 8 a.m. on both days, and must attend and participate in all eight hours to qualify for certificate. To attend this call and receive your Certificate of Completion, register by calling 317-0610 and speak to Ruth, who will place your name on the class roster. Walk-ins cannot attend and receive a certificate.

Attention veterans: All VFW meetings are on the first Wednesdays of each month, starting at 5:30 p.m. at the Veterans Hall. Anyone wishing audience with the VFW should call to be added to the agenda. The person to contact is Commander Elliot Palmer Post No. 4217 Kirby Heath Sr., 553-2115. Or Quartermaster Harvey Jim, 553-9003.

Museum program features fishing

The Living Traditions demonstration program at the Museum at Warm Springs will feature ceremonial fishing with Wilbur Johnson Sr. providing the demonstration.

The demonstration will be held in the museum's lobby from 1 to 5 p.m. Memorial Day Weekend, Saturday and Sunday, May 28-29.

An additional treat will be a dance performance that will take place at 2 p.m. on Sunday, May 29. The performance will be by Adeline Miller and the dance group, Unity.

There is no fee or charge to experience or the living traditions of the tribes or the dance performance. For information call the museum at 553-3331.
