

Culver defense too much for Lil Bucks

By Brian Mortensen

At this point in the Jefferson County Major Boys Little League season, every team trails a Madras team that's lost only once all year.

Two other teams had almost identical records going into Monday's action, as Culver, at 9-7-1, took on the Warm Springs Lil Bucks, who were 8-7-1.

Culver scored two runs in four of the six innings and won, 8-0, as pitchers Austin Barany and Jeremiah Calvin each went three innings and combined for the two-hit shut-out.

While Culver had eight hits to Warm Springs' two, Warm Springs had four runners get on base via free pass (base on balls or hit by pitch) to Culver's three.

The difference was Culver's perfect defense, which yielded a double play, to Warm Springs', which had six errors on the day.

Though the score appeared decisive, the Lil Bucks had chances to get back into the game.

Down 2-0 in the third inning, Warm Springs had two outs, as catcher Eddie Jones had just thrown out Calvin trying to steal second base. But an infield hit and a pair of errors on the bases led to two more runs, both unearned, to make the score 4-0.

In the bottom of the third, Warm Springs had runners on second and third after K.C. Jensen and Kenny Van Pelt, the Nos. 8 and 9 hitters, each had one-out base hits and moved up on a double-steal but were stranded.

Players chosen for national team

Brianna Stacona and Susan Ahern, two returning all-Tri-Valley League starters from the Madras High School girls basketball team, are among Oregon representatives selected to play on a team at the USA Junior National Girls Basketball Tournament at Columbus, Ohio, July 25-31.

Stacona and Ahern made the team after a tryout in Portland shortly after the high school season ended.

Ahern, a senior next season, and Stacona, a sophomore next fall, are the White Buffaloes' leading scorers in each of the past two seasons. Stacona was a state Class 3A Honorable Mention selection as a freshman, the only first-year player to receive consideration.

Each of the girls will need to raise $1,500 to participate in the tournament. The fee goes toward tournament registration, air fare, uniform, lodging, food, insurance, and ground transportation. Contributions for either or both players can be sent in care of Fran Ahern, P.O. Box 1025, Madras, OR 97741.
