Youth workers needed at camp

Need summer cash? You can earn money and have a fun time by being a youth counselor at the 4-H Culture Enrichment Camp.

Men and women 18 years and older are welcome to apply. A criminal background check is required.

Responsibilities include supervising youth at the overnight residential camp at Peter's Pasture.

The camp begins Saturday, July 16, and goes through Saturday, July 23. Some of the counselor positions require a few days before and after.

Salary depends on the job and the days worked. Contact Kimberley or Minnie at OSU Extension at 553-3238 for information.

Apologies

I would like to apologize for my actions on June 7, 2005. I'm sorry for what I did and I will not do it again. This is a wake-up call for me, so I'm sorry. Ulysses Jefferson.

I would like to take this time and apologize for my actions on July 2, 2004. I would also like to apologize to my family for going against my morals and ethnic values. I'm truly sorry. I would like to apologize to Mr. Richard Macy for breaking the trust of employer-employee relationship. I just wanted you to know I never intended this and will pay my debt to you. I'm sorry. A. Beny.

I would like to say that I am sorry for driving under the influence in February, to the Warm Springs community and the Police Department. This will never happen again. It also should have never happened in the first place. Dominic Davis.
