

Scholarship helps college student

Shayla Frank, the daughter of the late Jacob Frank Jr. and late Trudee Clements, was awarded the Adidas scholarship recently. Shayla is the granddaughter of Jacob and Winona Frank and Rudy and Anna Clements.

Shayla graduated from Sherman Indian High School in California in 2003, where she was a member of the National Honor Society and on the principal's list with a 4.0 GPA. Shayla received a social science award at Sherman Indian High School as well as being named an outstanding senior award winner. Selected to attend the "Close-up" education program in Washington D.C., Shayla toured historical sites in the nation's capitol. Shayla was also listed in the 2003 National Honor Society book (see page 322).

At a young age, Shayla attended Washut religious services at the Simnasho Longhouse. She was an "all-star" student of the month in elementary school and a member of SMILE. She also participated in 4-H, and attended OSU culture camps.

Following in the footsteps of her mother Trudee, and grandmother and grandfather Anna and Rudy Clements, Shayla enjoys bowling. She won awards as a junior bowler in tournaments and was a member of junior league. In middle school, she began running on her school's cross-country team and was team captain. Frank participates regularly in the Reservation

Shayla Frank receives an education scholarship of $500 from Kip Buck, of the Warm Springs Endurance Series, sponsored by Adidas. Shayla was selected by the Education Committee to receive the scholarship.

Relay, Kah-Nee-Ta mini marathons and the Hood-to-Coast Relay, and in high school, she was on the Challenge Team, competing in the Portland-to-Coast Relay.

Shayla grew up loving animals and horse racing. She loves to ride horses and owned her first horse "Chester" when she was 6. Her second horse was Hank, who she bought from Kitty Sharp, a former Miss Rodeo Oregon. Shayla rode Hank in parades at Pi-Ume-Sha and county fairs, regularly placing first or second for best dress in full Indian regalia. Shayla has also been a traditional and fancy dancer and traveled to many pow wows throughout the Northwest and as far east as Minnesota. Shayla is currently attending Salish Kootenai College in Pablo, Mont., where she majors in environmental science and fisheries and wildlife.

Frank gives her teacher, Mrs. Comment of Madras, a lot of credit.

"Mrs. Commons has always offered me support, encouragement, and direction," she said. Frank said she would also like to thank Adidas for the scholarship and thank the selection committee.

Shayla is looking forward to beginning her junior year at Salish Kootenai college.

Eastern Oregon University hosts orientation

Everyone is invited to an orientation session Sept. 15 from 11 a.m. to noon, when an advisor will discuss Eastern Oregon University and its distance education programs.

Many students in Central Oregon are already working toward degrees with majors in psychology; business administration or economics; physical education and health; philosophy, politics and economics; fire services administration, and liberal studies - degrees that focus on two areas of study.

Come up to the upstairs training room at the Education Services Division office in Warm Springs on Sept. 15 from 11 a.m. to noon with any questions you may have for the Eastern Oregon University advisor.

For further information you can also call the DDE office 385-1137.
