Geneva Charley

Warm Springs resident Geneva Charley passed away September 23, 2005, at the OHSU Hospital in Portland, at the age of 57.

Geneva was born January 16, 1948 to Verbena Tohet Greene, and Russell Charley Sr., and was raised by her grandparents Alec and Blanche Tohet. She was a member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

She was a longhouse leader as well as a good gatherer. Tradition and religion were important to her. What she learned, she passed down to her children and numerous nieces and nephews, and was teaching her grandchildren.

In her spare time she enjoyed making yarn bags by crocheting or weaving. She made these bags to be given as gifts at special occasions and giveaways. She did bead work for her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her nieces, nephews and grandchildren.

She worked for the Head Start Program for 22 years. She was a bus driver, parent/teacher health coordinator, and a teacher to 3-year-old students. During the summer months, in the early 1980s, she was the director of the Naami Tamanwit Culture Camp.

In 1994, when her mother became ill, Geneva took a leave of absence to take care of her mother until her passing in 2000. She served on the Health and Welfare Committee at the time of her passing, and will be missed by many people she met while attending meetings and conferences on behalf of the Confederated Tribes.

She is preceded in death by her parents, grandparents and her stepfather, Perry Greene. The father of her children, Harold "Campy" McBride Smith Jr. also precedes her death. Survivors include her sisters Celia Greene, Ramona Baez, Myrna "Paullee" Greene, Delsie Greene of Warm Springs, and Sarah Greene Gonzalez of Salem; Rosalind Sampson, and Melissa Charley of Warm Springs. Her brothers Michael, Daniel, Roscoe, Timothy Greene and Chris Requa, all of Warm Springs. Her children Alexandria Smith and Jamesina Viveros of Salem, Joseph, Rhonda and Gary Smith of Warm Springs. Grandchildren Angelina Perez and Karina Tapia of Salem, and Shirley Geneva Wainanwit of Warm Springs. She had a hand in raising her niece Veronica Baez, her nephews Ramon Greene, Luiz Baez of Warm Springs, Jefferson Greene of Portland, and Gabriel Greene of Salem. She is survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and many friends, as well as four sisters and two brothers from her father's family. Burial was at Dry Creek Cemetery following all-day services, and dressing at the Agency Longhouse.

Charles G. Reed

Charles G. Reed of Warm Springs passed away on September 30, 2005. He was 73.

Mr. Reed was born February 6, 1932 in Portland to parents George and Amy (Pete) Reed.

Mr. Reed was an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes. He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War, being honorably discharged in 1955.

Mr. Reed is survived by his daughter Coleen Reed of Warm Springs; brother Edward Reed of Bend; sister Ruby Reed of Warm Springs; two granddaughters and one great grandson.

Lunch and Learn series continues Oct. 27

The regular Lunch and Learn speaking series at High Lookee Lodge has been re-scheduled for October.

The following are the new scheduling details:

On Thursday, Oct. 27, Lunch and Learn will be honored to have two gifted speakers: Lynn Davis and Rudy Clements.

They will talk about gaming and the new Bridge of the Gods Casino.

The event begins at noon. You can reserve lunch for $3 by calling High Lookee at 553-1182.

Lunch and Learn wishes to thank High Lookee Lodge and their fantastic staff for hosting this series for Central Oregon Community College.

The Tribal Room is the perfect spot for these gatherings and all are welcome to attend.

COCC and Lunch and Learn also appreciate everyone's suggestions for topics and speakers. If you have an idea, call Cody 553-1428.
