In the Tribal Court of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs

Confederated Tribes, petitinoer, vs. Philamean David, respondent. Case No. JV140-05. To Philamean David: You are hereby notified that a petition for custody review has been filed with the Warm Springs Tribal Court. By this notice you are summoned to appear in this matter at a hearing scheduled for 9 a.m. on March 15, 2006 at the Warm Springs Tribal Court. All of the facts of the case will be heard at this hearing, including evidence you wish to present. You must appear to present your argument or the other side will automatically win. The petitioner, the Confederated Tribes, may then be given all that is asked for in the petition for custody review. The petitioner will be present at the hearing. If you desire to personally argue your side of the case, you may have a legal aide, spokesperson or attorney appear on your behalf at your expense. If you have any questions, you should seek legal advice immediately.

Letters of apology

I'd like to take this time to apologize to the community for having in my possession drug paraphernalia on Dec. 16, 2005. I'll try to make an effort not to let this happen again. Christopher Jay Chee.

To the Warm Springs reservation, I am sorry for what happened at 6624 Webster Flat Dr. on the morning of Aug. 19, 2005 at 6:16 a.m. It will never happen again. Once again I'm sorry. Rosalina Arce-Marin.

I just wish that everyone should have been punished the way we were, I and my sisters, all we ever did was help out others and this is the way we get our paybacks. But what goes around comes around. Rosalina Arce-Marin.

I would like to apologize to the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs for the DUII I got on the early morning of Nov. 24. I was wrong, also put lives of others, including my own, in danger. I ask for forgiveness and it will not happen again. Thank you. Floyd C. Frank Jr.

I would like to apologize to the community, judge and police department for my actions, the charges of carrying drug paraphernalia on me. I regret the incident and learned my lesson. I'm sitting 20 days in the Warm Springs correctional facility on this charge. So again I'm sorry. Thank you. Tim Tumbaga.

I would like to extend to each of you my most sincere apology for any inconvenience I caused by my actions. The crimes I committed are as follows: trespass, drug paraphernalia, narcotics, dangerous drugs, hallucinogens, and delirants. This again is my most sincere apology. Earl Gavaert.

I apologize for my actions that took place on Aug. 19, 2005 at 6:16 a.m. Most of all to my children and family I apologize for all I put you through. I love and miss you and I hope you can all forgive me. Marcelina Arce.

I would like to apologize to the Warm Springs reservation for the wrongdoings I've done on Aug. 19 on or around 6 a.m. I realize what I did was wrong for many families, including my own. I apologize to my children and my family. I've had a long time to think about this incident and I'm extremely sorry. Graciela Estrada.

I apologize for my actions on Aug. 19, 2005. Also to my daughters and nephews because of my wrongdoings. They are the ones who are suffering and of course the squad team for trying to do their job. Once again I'm sorry. Joanna F. Arce.

This is my apology letter to the community and my family for the hurt, heartache and shame that I caused us all with my actions in October 2005. I'm so sorry. I love you all, and thanks for standing with me. Tina Spino.

I would like to take this time to apologize to the community for my actions that took place on January 10, 2006. I am sincerely sorry for my actions and I'll make sure it doesn't happen any time in the near future. Thank you. Tyrone O. Lewis.

To officer Patterson, the Warm Springs community, my dearest granddaughter, family, supervisor, manager, tribal judge, legal assistance, prosecutors, co-workers, and in-laws. I deeply apologize to you for my actions on Dec. 14, 2005. Officer Patterson, you were doing your duty, stay honest. Laurel N. Wheeler.

To the community of Warm Springs, I am sorry I stole your money from your candy machines and stealing your computer. I will help fix up the community and work everything off. Codi Lesena.

I would like to take this time to apologize for my actions. I am very sorry for driving under the influence of intoxicants. I didn't mean to break the law. I don't know what I would have done if I hurt someone. It won't happen again and I am very sorry. I also would like to apologize to the officer. I'm sorry. Oscar Queahpama.

I would like to apologize to my little sis and brother for my action on 1-11-06. I'm so sorry and I love you guys very much. Again, I'm sorry, also the courts and the probation. I don't think I have any reason to apologize to the community because they didn't have anything to do with my arrest for paraphernalia. I'm sorry for that too. So God bless you. Henry Kalama III.

I would like to say sorry to my baby girls for leaving them with their auntie just because I was having and rough time in life at the moment. But really that is no excuse to leave my baby. Sitting in jail gave me a lot of time to think and to put my head on straight again. I would like to say sorry, for this hurt me very much. Girls, mom will always love you and see you soon. L. Suppah.
