Tribal Ski Day at Mount Hood Meadows was Friday, Jan. 27.

About 80 youth of the Warm Springs community skied and snowboarded for free during the afternoon of Tribal Ski Day.

Two Mt. Hood Meadows buses transported the youth from the Warm Springs Community Center to Mt. Hood Meadows, and then later in the day transported them back to the reservation.

Mt. Hood Meadows provided equipment rentals, lift passes, free lessons and lunch.

The tribal member youth who participated, accompanied by adult chaperones, had the choice of either skiing or snowboarding.

Forestry seeking bids for gopher control program

The Warm Springs Forestry Department gopher control program is continuing a sealed bid procedure for the 2006 gopher trapping season.

The program is soliciting potential bidders (tribal members) who are interested in participating. This information will help address the needs for the program.

Also, when applying, please attach an updated insurance policy for the records (not required but appreciated).

Your response to this questionnaire does not guarantee any contract.

For more information please call Robinson T. Mitchell at the Forestry Department Gopher Control, 553-2416 ext. 247.
