Valentines Wish to my Cecil Fern Frank. Dear one, my love for you is unending. You are always in my prayers and held in my gentle and kind thoughts. Whatever our separation in miles may be, we share an eternal connection of heart and spirit. I hold you close in my heart, affirming you are receiving perfect, loving care. God guides your caregivers in ways of wisdom, alertness and willingness. Their thoughtful care fills your days and nights with peace and reassurance. Thanks Carol-Pete Parra. Your brother, Charles E. Frank.

Happy Valentines Day, Cheryl. Love, Dave.

Roses are red, violets are blue Here's to my valentines: I love you!

To my husband Easton who has always been there, Thank you for everything that shows you care.

To Nel, Jazell & Bambi, we miss you very much,

Would be nice if you would only keep in touch.

To Perry & Curtiss, keep up the good work at home & school, Quit chasing those girls, trying to act cool.

To Aaron, I'm so glad you came home.

Makes us feel complete, no longer to roam.

To Punkie, praying for you each day & night,

That you'd always keep Jesus in your sight.

To my sisters, brothers & friends of near & far,

Hoping your day is good, blessings for many more.

To Ma & Pa Williams thank you for all you've done,

Praying for us to keep serving Jesus the son.

To Grandma & Grandpa Aguilar you've been our rock,

Thank you for prayers to help us walk our talk.

Thank you God for all my Valentines so dear,

Keep them safe year after year. Love, Tina

To my one and only Dinah. Love, Dave.

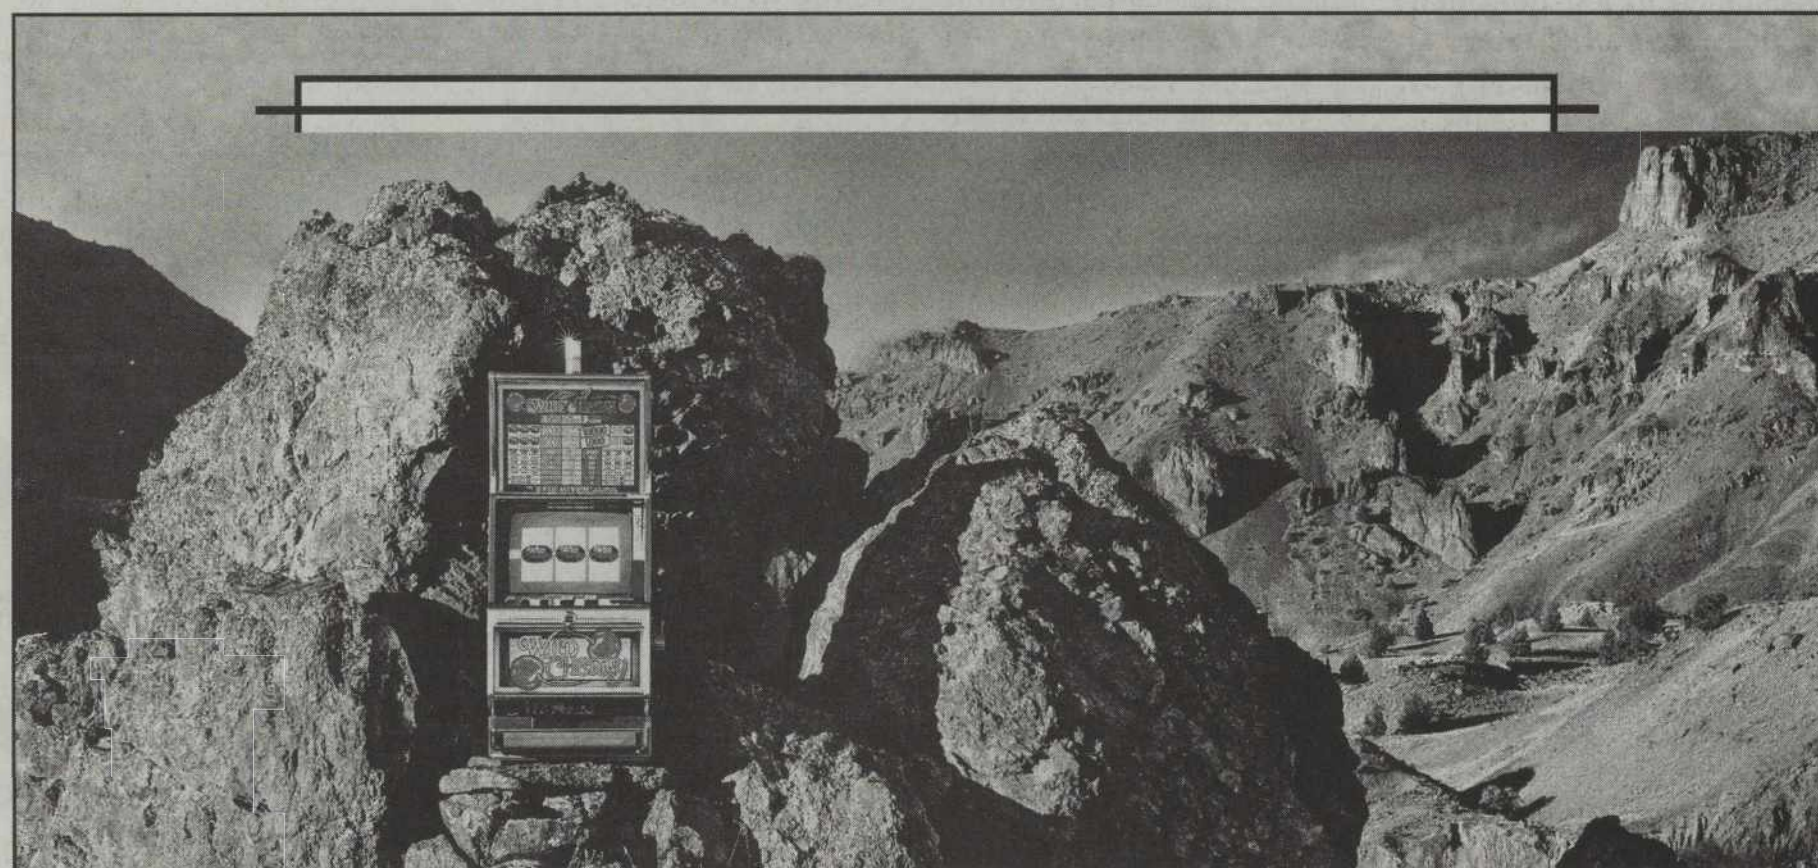

Happy Valentines Day, Mom. From your bossy boy Michael.
