Letters of apology

This is an apology for the incident that happened on Jan. 1, 2006. I and the other person involved had to be incarcerated for five days to pay for our crimes. This is to say sorry for hitting you. But we all know what's really up. Sisters forever. Love, your Na-Na Denise Smith.

I am writing a letter to the community and whomever I endangered while driving under the influence. I want to apologize and assure everyone that I have learned from my mistake and have taken initiative and changed my life for the better, and have turned to sobriety since the New Year. Forgive me. Sincerely, Patricia Marie Kalama.

I'm very sorry I cooked and cleaned for you and your family. I'm sorry I paid you for rent and I'm sorry that a verbal contract is nothing in Warm Springs Tribal Court. Angela L. Stacona.

I would like to take this time to apologize for the incident of the charge of escape. This charge is not going to happen again in the future for I am doing positive things in my life. Thanks for your time. Tracy Fuentes.
