Hotshots playing at MHS gym

The Central Oregon Hotshots of the International Basketball League, whose high-flying, high-scoring action has been playing in the Bend and Redmond area since the team's first season last year, have planned to bring a home game to the Madras High School gym.

The Hotshots host the Seattle Mountaineers Fri., April 7, at the MHS gym.

The game starts at 7:15 p.m. "Madras and Warm Springs are areas that love great basketball, but they do not always have the chance to drive to Bend to catch the games," Hotshots coach J.J. Anderson said. "We decided it would be valuable to bring the game to the spirited fans there."

The Hotshots, who have been playing at Summit High in Bend this season, recently scored an IBL-record 57 points in the first period of a 158-137 win over the Vancouver Volcanoes.

The Hotshots include two local products in 6-7 Alex Carlson from Culver, who played collegiately at Oregon Tech, and Prineville's Ryan McCarthy, a 6-3 shooting guard who played at Northwest Nazarene.

The game at Madras High is a fundraiser for White Buffalo athletics, as 25 percent of the game receipts go to the school.

In addition to the game itself, Hotshots players host a youth clinic at 4 p.m., before the game, for players in grades 1-8. Enrollment for the clinic is $15 and includes a ticket to the game.

General admission to the game is $5. Special reserved tickets are available by contacting the Hotshots in advance at (541) 221-3157.

Corps of Discovery at museum in April

The Corps of Discovery II history exhibition will be at the Museum at Warm Springs Saturday, April 22, through Wednesday, April 26.

The exhibition features history of the region from the time of the Lewis and Clark expedition, which happened 200 years ago.

The central feature of Corps of Discovery II is the "Tent of Many Voices." This 150-seat auditorium is a venue for cultural arts demonstrations, folklore, music, living history presentations, readings from the expedition journals and more.

Programs reflect a spectrum of nature, culture and history topics. The Indian tribes that the Lewis and Clark encountered are featured.

In addition to the walk-through exhibit, Corps of Discovery II has a 25-foot keelboat replica, a 16-foot diameter Plains Indian lodge and an explorer camp complete with a 25-foot dugout canoe.

Local residents will give presentations during the five days that Corps II is in Warm Springs. Invited to speak from the local community are the following people: Pat Courtney Gold, Louie Pitt, Terry Courtney Jr., the Warm Springs 4-H Dancers, George Aguilar, Liz Woody, Arlita Rhoan, Suzie Slockish, Adeline Miller, Roberta Kirk, Fred Wallulatum, Wilson Wewa, Chief Delvis Heath, and Viola Kalama.

The exhibition will be in the parking lot of the Museum at Warm Springs. After April 26 the exhibition will travel to Umatilla.

Corps of Discovery II is a joint effort of federal and state agencies, private and nonprofit organizations, and American Indian tribes. The National Park Service provides major funding, exhibit design and production, transportation, and support staff through the Lewis and Clark National Historic Trail, based in Omaha, Neb.

There will be a reception for the exhibition at the Museum at Warm Springs on Saturday, April 22 from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Duke hosts stargazing program

A stargazing program to explore the night skies of Central Oregon is offered for area residents at the Jefferson County Library on Tuesday, April 4 at 7 p.m.

The stargazing program is free and open to persons of all ages. It will be presented by Bob Duke, professional astronomer from Astoria, Oregon who writes the monthly "Skywatch" astronomy column for the Oregonian.

The program will start at the library's Rodriguez Annex, and will then move outside to observe the night sky.

Boys & Girls Club hosts parade, BBQ

April 3-7 is National Boys & Girls Club Week, and Boys & Girls Clubs of Central Oregon joins more than 3,000 other Boys & Girls Clubs across the country in celebrating this national event. For its part the Boys and Girls Club of Warm Springs hosts a community parade and barbecue on Friday, April 7 starting at 11 a.m. For more information about Boys & Girls Club Week activities or Club membership, please contact Kim Goehring at 548-2840.
