Fannie Wahleneka

Fannie Wahleneka passed away on April 29, 2006. She was 97. Before her death Mrs. Wahleneka was the eldest member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

She was born February 15, 1909 at Log Springs, Oregon, to parents Louis (Kol-Wash) Clydehawks Scott and Lucy Yahtin. She was the youngest of five children. Mrs. Wahleneka was married to Grant Wahleneka.

Her two sisters were Daisy and Emma; her brothers were Leonard and Sam.

Fannie worked hard all her life. Her work included many years as a matron at the Warm Springs Boarding School, she also worked picking berries, and during World War II was a welder in the war effort.

She was a traditional food gatherer and enjoyed picking berries and digging roots. Fannie especially enjoyed pie, ice cream, berries and lots of whipped cream on her hot chocolate. She also enjoyed being surrounded by daughter Faye, her grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

She never had a harsh word about anyone.

She shared her love and her wisdom with family and friends.

She loved with all her heart, and all of her family felt that love.

She is survived by her daughter Faye Wahleneka, Grandchildren Kenman Miller, Sharon Miller, Robert Roscoe Smith, Julian Smith, Eldred Smith Sr., Pam Cardenas, Kevin Smith Sr. and Robin Smith all of Warm Springs; and 21 great grandchildren, and 12 great-great grandchildren.
