

Smith is regional champ

Jasper Smith won the regional championship boxing match May 20 at a match in Beaverton.

Smith, in the 138-pound bracket, boxed Thomas Miller of Kelso, Wash., and won a unanimous decision.

As the winner of the three-state Pacific Northwest regional championship match, Smith will travel to the Junior Olympic championships this month in Marquette, Mich.

Wesley Graybael also boxed at Beaverton. In the 147-pound bracket, Graybael lost a close match by split decision to Carlos Arias of the Beaverton Police Athletic Association.

In other recent boxing action, Smith defeated Romiro Ruiz of West Portland at a May 13 Saturday night match in Madras.

Also at Madras, Delbert Goudy in his first match ever boxed in the 105-pound bracket. Goudy, 10, fought a good bout but lost to Tyler Giulio of West Portland.

"Each round he boxed, he got better and better," said coach Austin Smith of Goudy's first-ever match.

Also on May 13 at Madras, Johnny Smith boxed in the 152-pound bracket. This was his first open match, with the winner being Gavin Scott of West Portland.

"It was a good match and Johnny fought a good fight," Smith said. "He's looking forward to a rematch."

The Warm Springs boxers will see a lot of action in coming weeks, with Pi-Ume-Sha boxing this month, and also the June 17 matches at the Kla-Mo-Ya Casino at Chiloquin. Jasper Smith will also box at the Marquette, and at the Indigenous Games in Denver, Colo.

Pi-Ume-Sha weekend includes boxing

The 2006 Pi-Ume-Sha Treaty Days will be on Saturday, 24 at the Warm Springs Community Center gymnasium. Bouts will start at 4 p.m.

This is a USA amateur boxing sanctioned event. Boxers from throughout the Northwest will compete.

Pi-Ume-Sha Boxing this year will benefit the athletes who are planning compete at the Indigenous Games July 2-9 at Denver, Colo.

Meanwhile, Warm Springs

boxers are looking for sponsors for the Indigenous Games, set for July 2-9 in Denver, Colo. Boxers planning to attend the games include Oits Johnson (heavyweight), Trevor Tewee (light heavyweight), Johnny Smith (light middleweight), Wesley Graybael (welter-weight), Jasper Smith (lightweight), Leander Smith (cadet), and Delbert Goudy (cadet).

Anyone interested in helping sponsor the trip can call Austin Smith at the Warm Springs Community Center, 553-3243. Sponsorships are $35 annually. This covers one boxer for the year.

For the Pi-Ume-Sha matches, weigh-in will be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Doctor's exam from 2 to 3 p.m. For information contact Austin Smith at the gym at 553-3243, or at work at 553-3250.

Mail boxers' names, ages, experience and weight classes to: P.O. Box 386, Warm Springs, OR 97761. (See the flyer on page 12.)
