Letters of apology

I am sorry I broke tribal law on April 16, 2006 by means of receiving a charge of DUII, which I pleaded guilty to. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize to my employer and the Confederated Tribes. Part of my punishment was a last chance. I also want to say that I am thankful to the officer for her professionalism upon contact, and I would like to thank Sgt. Williams for taking care of my truck. I will make every effort to follow the laws in the future. Nettie S. Dickson.

I would like to apologize to the community of Warm Springs for being pulled over for driving under the influence. I would also like to apologize to my family and friends, also to those I have offended and put in danger. Please accept my apology. Sincerely, William Switzer III.

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, I am sorry I broke tribal law on March 17, 2006 by taking tires one late night from an elder. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further I apologize to the following: Chesley Yahtin, who was impacted by my actions. I also want to say that I have learned from action and I would like to say again I am sorry and I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Harold Charley.

I am sorry I broke tribal law on May 13, 2006 by means of the charge of assault, which I pled no contest to. I apologize to the tribes and to my mother whose property I was on during this incident. I am locked up now to think about and pay to society for my actions. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions brought to our family name. Further I apologize to my daughter and parents who were directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that physical action will not be done to solve problems in my future, because incarceration is not fun. I believe I bring shame to myself and not to my family. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Caleb Paul Jim.

To the people of Warm Springs and Wilona Poitra, I am sorry for my actions on the 25th day of last month and nothing like that is to happen again. Thank you. Kevin L. Smith Jr.

I am sorry I broke tribal law on March 19, 2006 by having drug paraphernalia. I would like to say I'm sorry to the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions brought to our family. Further I apologize to the following: Mary Davis and family who were directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that I will be on my best behavior as I live this life of mine. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Irvin Paul.

To the community of Warm Springs I'm writing this apology to you, because I have been causing malicious mischief in the community. I'll tell you this much, I am going to work on my anger as well as my drinking. That is all for now. See you later. Sonny Berry.

I would like to apologize for my words and actions on 12-3-05 at the Kah-Nee-Ta lounge. I also send my apologies to the Kah-Nee-Ta security, lounge workers, and Helen. I was very intoxicated at the time, but it was never my intention to hurt anybody. Once again I'm sorry for everything. Sheena Culps.

To this great tribe of Warm Springs, I am truly sorry for the inconvenience of not stopping at a stoplight. Since I disobeyed the law, I am truly sorry for my reckless actions, if I offend the officer, please forgive me. I do not intend to break any more laws, for I have learned a very great lesson. Peace, love and happiness to all. Reynolds Allen.

To the community, courts and whoever else: I apologize to my little brothers Perry and Curtiss for not looking out for them and scaring them. Please don't do as I do because it's not worth it. I apologize to Easton for using his vehicle for my own pleasure and it got me in trouble because I was doing what I wasn't supposed to be doing. I apologize to the community because I might have caused an accident and hurt somebody or worse. I'm glad there wasn't an accident. Aaron Squally.

To my family and my people of Warm Springs, I'm here in jail for being drunk and being up for too many days on meth. I'd first like to apologize to my kids and Jonathan. I missed your guys birthday. I feel very ashamed for letting my precious angels down but I'm here doing my time and I plan on making it up to you all. Also I'd like to apologize to Mother Theresa for fighting in her apartment and having the cops called for my behavior. Please forgive me for my shortcomings. Take care. Lots of love. Connie Daniels.

This is to whom it may concern. I would like to take this time to apologize to the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation for what happened on or about Feb. 12 around 2:30 p.m. when I got pulled over for driving under the influence of alcohol. Again I would like to say I'm sorry. Lydell Adams.

To all my people, I'm apologizing for my actions, injury to public property as well as wasting tribal court time. In the future I will show respect for public property and not seek its injury or destruction. Thank you for your time. Jerry Clement.

To whom it may concern, I would like to apologize to the Warm Springs Indian Reservation for the wrong doings I've done on August 19 on or around 6 a.m. I realize what I did was wrong to many families including my own. I apologize to my children and my family. I've had a long time to think about this incident and I'm extremely sorry. Graciela Estrada.

To the Confederated Tribes, I apologize for my actions on August 19, 2005. Also to my daughters and nephews. Because of my wrong doings they are the ones who are suffering. And of course the squad team for trying to do their job. Once again I'm sorry. Joanna F. Arce.
