Letters of apology

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs: I would like to apologize because I broke tribal law on June 25, 2006 by my actions during the sobriety checkpoint during Pi-umc-sha weekend. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize to the following: my friend for helping me and my family, who was directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that I would like to apologize to anybody who felt like I put their life in any type of danger. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Joseph D. Thompson.

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs: This is my second letter of apology I've submitted. My first one was misplaced at the Spilyay. I wish no hard feelings between George Moses and/or the Moses family for getting stuck on their property at Berry Hill. For this I am sorry and was not aware of the land being privately owned. I am fully aware of this now and have not been back since. I hope you all accept this and forgive my misunderstanding. Dan Brisbais Jr.

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs: I am sorry I broke tribal law on May 12 by not following the law here in Warm Springs. I was stopped on East Tenino Road and charged with NDDH. I got 60 days for my action. I am sorry to Warm Springs and Warm Springs people. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought our family name. Further, I apologize to the Polk family, who were directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that it was wrong and I won't mess up again. I got my head on right. I am sorry again, and I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Tyrone Muldrow.

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs: I, Douglas Williams, am sorry I broke tribal law on April 21 by DUII and drug paraphernalia. I sincerely wish to apologize for my actions that led to the bad decisions that I made. I would really like to apologize to my family, friends and people, and those I hurt in the process of making my decisions. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize to the Warm Springs Police Department who was directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that it won't happen again and I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Douglas Williams.

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs: This letter is in regards to my unlawful actions on the day of May 7. I realize I did do wrong my driving a vehicle under the influence of alcohol. I would like the Warm Springs Tribal Court to know I was in relapse and I had six months sobriety on my own, and by accomplishing this sobriety I went back to our Washat way of life. In my six months of sobriety I have established my own place to call my home and been able to keep up on my light bill and telephone bill, and have had food on my table. I have earned the trust of the elders of the Agency Longhouse to become a head cook—to be called on to cook for our funerals and memorials. I am very appreciative of such trust from my elders and being able to go and gather our ceremonial foods, to be blessed to go along with our elders to carry on the way of Washat life. Again I apologize for my unlawful actions. I'm asking to have consideration of me for I am not able to pay a fine. I'm willing to do community service. I'm asking the Tribal Court to have mercy upon me on my sentencing and to take into consideration that I am doing the best I can for myself to keep sober. Again, I am saying I'm sorry for my unlawful actions. Sincerely, Teresa Nora Suppah.
