Letters of apology

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs: I am sorry that I broke tribal law on Oct. 1 by driving under the influence of intoxicants. While under the influence I endangered innocent pedestrians or passengers while behind the driver's wheel. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize to my wife, Lucy, who was directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that I would like to apologize to my friends who tried to keep my keys so I wouldn't drive—too late now. I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Thomas R. Williams.

I, Tony Gilbert, am sorry I broke tribal law on 9-26-06 by Highway 3. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize for the following, DUII, reckless endangering. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Tony Gilbert.

Respect women.

AWAITING INSTRUCTIONS.

Violence against women is not part of our traditions. Harmony relies on our ability to respect, honor and nurture all our relatives. We must teach the boys our life early and often that this is what it means to be a warrior and that violer never equals strength. A safer world is in their hands, help them grasp it.
