

Events brighten holiday season

If you already have the wintertime blues, the Community Center is offering a variety of options to help celebrate the holidays this December.

In addition to scheduled family events, the center will host daily events for children during their time off from school for the holidays.

Starting on Dec. 22, children can participate in activities for the remainder of the school break.

For families, the center will host the following events throughout the month:

Tree lighting—Dec. 7

It's time to get in the Christmas spirit, and the community can join in by attending the first event during the holiday season. The Community Center will sponsor the annual tree lighting, car light parade and barbecue tonight. Activities will begin at 6 p.m.

Annual Christmas Bazaar—Dec. 9

Ready to start shopping for the perfect gifts? The annual Christmas bazaar will feature plenty of handcrafted items for sale. The bazaar will begin at 8 a.m. and end at 4 p.m. Applications are still being taken for vendors.

Ornament Making—Dec. 12

Families who need something extra to trim their tree can come to a family ornament making session at the Community Center. The event begins at 6 p.m.

Community Christmas Program—Dec. 14

People throughout the community can come together to celebrate the spirit of Christmas at the Community Center on Dec. 14. The program will begin at 7 p.m.

Christmas Indian Nite Out—Dec. 19

Community members are invited to let loose with some holiday cheer at the Christmas Indian Nite Out. The event will begin at 6 p.m. in the Community Center gym.

Last-Minute Christmas Bazaar—Dec. 20

If you're still shopping, the Last-Minute Christmas Bazaar offers a solution for finding the final few gifts. The bazaar will begin at 10 a.m. and end at 6 p.m. in the Community Center social hall.

Junior Miss Warm Springs workshops—Dec. 14 and Dec. 21

Workshops will teach girls how to make shawls, crowns and other traditional materials in order to prepare them for the Junior Miss Warm Springs pageant in January. Each workshop will begin at noon and last until 1 p.m.

Junior Miss Warm Springs Pageant—Jan. 26

A local girl will be crowned the next Junior Miss Warm Springs in this annual pageant on Jan. 26.

Award recognizes tribal finance reporting

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs Finance Department has received the Certificate of Excellence in Financial Reporting Award from the Government Finance Officers Association of the U.S. and Canada.

The award is a significant achievement, and represents the highest award in government financial reporting. The award is for the tribes' Comprehensive Annual Financial Report.

The report was judged by an impartial panel, and was determined to have met the high standards of reporting.

The annual report demonstrated a constructive "spirit of full disclosure," clearly communicating the financial story of the tribes, and motivating potential users and user groups to read the report, according to the finance officers association.

The association is a non-profit association serving approximately 16,000 government finance professionals. Their officers are in Chicago and Washington, D.C.
