If you have any questions, you should seek legal advice immediately.

Letters of apology

I am sorry I broke tribal law on December 23, 2006 by having in my pocket at the time of my arrest for being intoxicated a piece of drug paraphernalia. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further I apologize to the following: the arresting officers, who were directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say that these actions that I committed were not a very smart thing to do. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Melvin Stahi Sr.

I am writing this letter to apologize to the community and to the other persons that were riding with me in my vehicle while I was driving under the influence. I am also writing to apologize to the officers that were involved in my arrest for any hard times that I may have given them. Most of all to the community of Warm Springs, I am sorry that this even happened, and glad that no one else was involved or hurt. I am working on making myself a better person so that this won't happen again. Robert Williams.

As I sin in jail this day today I would like to say I'm sorry for my actions to R. Howe, for my wrongs and bad that I had done to you. I was drunk. But then again I can't blame the beer for my actions that I did to you that night. So I would just like to say I'm sorry for my wrong actions. If you could forgive me or look down deep in your heart to forgive me, could you please? Thanks for your time. Sincerely, Terrine Rabbie.

As I sit here in jail I am thinking about all my wrong actions I've been doing to the Warm Springs rez and to my friends and family. I would like to say I'm sorry for what I had done and I'm never going to do any more wrong, bad things to anyone or myself any more. Thanks for all of your time. Sincerely, Terrine Rabbie.

I am sorry I broke tribal law on February 12, 2006 by trespassing onto Graybael's property without their permission and doing some things I should have not been doing in the first place. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize to the following: the Graybael family who was directly impacted by my actions. I also want to say I am really sorry for that night. And that I usually have respect for all of them and I just want them to know that I still will and that it will never happen again, because it was too disrespectful. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Jenny VanPelt.

To the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, I am sorry I broke the law on February 12, 2006 by trespassing and being where I was not supposed to and by not respecting the Graybaels. I apologize
