Scoping meetings scheduled

Tribal members are being asked to provide comments on the proposed 2009 Timber Sale and a plan to assess the harvest of trees killed by mountain pine beetle.

Timber Committee, the Natural Resources Branch and Branch of Forestry will host three scoping meetings in early June to discuss these projects.

Employees from Forestry and Natural Resources will provide information regarding the 2009 timber sale and a largescale assessment to harvest beetle-killed trees on reservation forestlands.

The first meeting is scheduled for June 5 at Agency Longhouse, the second for June 6 at Simnasho Longhouse and the third for June 7 at Seekseequa Fire Station. Food will be served at 6 p.m. and each meeting begins at 7 p.m.

The technical staff will point out general areas where trees might be harvested and how both of the projects could be implemented. Comments received during the scoping meeting will be used to develop separate assessments for each project.

For those who are unable to attend the meetings, written comments may be submitted to the Branch of Forestry. Additional information may be obtained by calling 553-2416.
