Boxers compete in Battle on the Rez

By Austin Smith
Boxing Coach

The Battle on the Rez happened on April 28, 2007 in Warm Springs.

We had some good boxing clubs and with them came some good boxers and these athletes put on some good entertainment. I'm proud to say, "Thank you Warm Springs boxing fans," for coming to enjoy and support our youth at something positive in our lives. It never hurts to try a different sport, book, thought, whatever; as long as it adds to the good side. Who knows their bad side?

How'd you like the people who were wearing the white clothes? I think their work was outstanding. Also, the fight doctor, Dr. Beamer of Madras, he donates his time in support of the sport and I think that makes him closer than ringside.

I also want to mention the "Star Spangled Banner" singer, the man can hit them notes and infect our bones, James Haliday, also; a boxing sponsor to two of our team boxers.

Can't forget the men in the gym, Frank Brunoe, who volunteers time each weekday as a coach, passing a bit of the torch to those who are alert. Vernon E. Smith Sr., whose fire burns freely and his expertise is, one, handed down and put together by himself from doing the Art. Frank Smith, the uncle inside the sport, keeps us on our toes and gets them bodies in shape; liking a sport is one thing, just playing the game is another.
