Fifth-grade graduates prepare for middle school

Fifth grade students at the Warm Springs Elementary School prepared to begin attending middle school next year with a graduation ceremony last week.

Julie Quaid spoke at the graduation and told the fifth graders about watching the 170 high school seniors graduate recently.

"It was a wonderful event for everyone and we're looking forward to seeing you graduate too," she said.

Jeff Sanders also spoke, and told the students, "This is going to be a great community because of people like you who are going to be the future leaders."

Principal Dawn Smith

said, "It makes me glad for them, but just a little sad too that they're be moving on."
