Leona Ike and Frederick Ike III represented Warm Springs at the recent Cascade Locks SternWheeler Days celebration. The Ikes were acting as ambassadors of the Confederated Tribes to the Cascade Locks community, where the tribes are planning to build the Bridge of the Gods Resort and Casino. The ambassadors program has sponsored a number of floats in various parades this summer. For instance, they won a first prize with a float in the Pi-Ume-Sha Parade. Carol Wewa organized the float.

Youth leadership conference at Kah-Nee-Ta

Youth of the tribal community are invited to a Leadership Conference beginning at 9 a.m. on Thursday and Friday, Aug. 9-10, at Kah-Nee-Ta.

The conference will help youth prepare for college and careers.

There will be a career fair, information on tribal government, education, health, drug prevention, and "Fun in the Sun."

There is no registration fee for this conference.

Business training for tribal entrepreneurs

There will be a leadership and entrepreneur crash course training on Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 6-7.

The training, conducted in conference room 3 at the administration building, will help participants draft a business plan to compete for a $500 grant for the business. On August 6 the training will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and on August 7 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. The training is open to Warm Springs students ages 14-18.

This is a chance to earn a pink or blue sheet. For information contact Jaylyn Suppah or Daniel Berumen at 553-1034.
