The boxers fought almost evenly for the first two and two-thirds rounds, said Austin Smith, Warm Springs boxing coach. Then in the third round Craig proved to be the stronger of the two, and won by a TKO, said Smith.

The match at Kla-Mo-Ya was Craig's third of his career, and his third TKO.

The Warm Springs Nation Boxing Club is invited to attend the Grand Avenue boxing tournament on Aug. 3 at Portland, and the Knott St. tournament in Portland on Aug. 11.

"The Warm Springs Nation Boxing Club encourages all young athletes to stay involved in sports," said Smith. "Don't just think about it, do it."
