Proclamation of the Twenty-Fourth Tribal Council

Dated July 18, 2007

Whereas the people of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs hold ultimate sovereignty over themselves and the Warm Springs Indian Reservation; and

Whereas the Tribal Constitution adopted by the people establishes an 11-member Tribal Council to govern the Tribe, and delegates to the Tribal Council certain important powers of the people; and

Whereas it is the duty of the Tribal Council to govern the reservation for the people's benefit; and

Whereas the people have the need and have expressed the desire for greater opportunity through development of revenue-generating economic initiatives and creation of jobs, educational improvements, and modernization of the reservation's technology and infrastructure; and

Whereas the people have the need and have expressed the desire for the community to provide better support to its members through high-quality healthcare, housing, elimination of substance abuse, support of families, and improved public safety; and

Whereas the people have the need and have expressed the desire to be served by a more effective and accountable government that takes timely action, communicates well both internally and externally, reviews its performance, sets long-term direction and strategies, and reduces bureaucracy; and

Whereas the people have the need and have expressed the desire to maintain and advance their status as a sovereign people through preservation of their culture, traditions, beliefs, and values, care of tribal lands and natural resources, and pursuit of sovereign interests and treaty protection; and

Whereas the Twenty-Fourth Tribal Council recognizes and supports the people's desire for improvements in the areas described and is committed to provide the leadership required to accomplish these goals; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Twenty-Fourth Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, pursuant to the Constitution and By-Laws, Article V, Section 1 (f), (l), (o), and (p), and the Corporate Charter, Section 4, that the Tribal Council hereby proclaims its commitment to prioritize the use of tribal resources for the following purposes:

1. Adoption and active implementation of a long-term strategic plan for the economy that will generate jobs and revenues needed to fund other tribal priorities;

2. Better healthcare, including programs to reduce substance abuse on the reservation;

3. Improvement in education, vocational training, internships, and youth development;

4. More effective and accountable government and enterprises;

5. Improvement in the reservation's facilities and infrastructure, including construction of tribal member housing;

6. Preservation and enhancement of the Tribe's natural, cultural, and sovereign endowments;

and directs the entire tribal organization and enterprises to support these priorities as it carries out its duties.
