Letters of apology

First of all I would like to send this apology out to the community for my reckless behavior, and to my family whom I have put through so much worry and strife. I love you all so much. I plan on using my time while incarcerated to reflect on my actions, bettering myself and pursuing the Lord. I would like to thank all who are willing to stand by me with the support and encouragement that I need at this time. I would also like to say to a special someone (Forrest Tewe), I cherish the moments that we've spent, and without a doubt you're forever on my mind. Sorry our relationship had to start on such a rough road, but I want you to know that my love is with you and I hope to hear from you soon. Love always, Annie Dee.

I am sorry I broke tribal law on 7-6-05 by child neglect. I apologize to my family for the shame my actions have brought to our family name. Further, I apologize to my husband, children and parents, who were directly impacted by my actions. And I will make every effort to follow our laws in the future. Philameme David.
