At DMJ Automotive, Jenna Johnson, a former winner of the Cowdeo trophy saddle, shows the saddle that will be awarded this year to the overall winner of the 2007 Cowdeo. DMJ has donated the prize saddle to the Cowdeo for the past several years. The Cowdeo will be on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 20-21, at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds.

Deli and tech center extend operating hours

The TePee Deli and Eagle Tech Technology Center are extending operating hours to 7 a.m.-7 p.m.

The hours are extended to meet the needs of the community.

The TePee Deli is located with Eagle Tech Systems Technology Center to create an internet café atmosphere.

The deli and technology center are located on Highway 26 at The Plaza at Warm Springs, across the road from the Museum at Warm Springs.

The TePee Deli offers daily specials for breakfast, lunch, and dinner as well as espresso, smoothies, and other specialty drinks.

A business lunch menu is also available to meet catering needs. For more information contact Louisa Fuentes, deli manager, at 553-2568.

The technology center offers access at no charge to 20 computer workstations loaded with Microsoft Office Programs, a variety of games, webcams, and internet access.

Free computer classes are available to the community on a regular basis. Stop by and pick up a schedule, or call Yvonne Iverson, training coordinator, at 553-1034.

Eagle Tech Systems also carries an inventory of computer supplies for purchase that include: cd's, dvd's, keyboards, flash drives, and other necessary supplies for your business or home.

Printing, scanning and faxing services are also available. For pricing or more information contact Roxanne Johnson-Bisland, office manager, at 553-1034.
