Since we were moved from the Columbia River to be placed in one area as a Indian Reservation. We were moved several times. First stop was Tygh Valley, we were named then Tiax. The second move was to Hot springs, (Today is known as Kahneta Resort) and then we were placed here to stay. We named our place Mlii, as Warm Springs, meaning warm water. Our river people was named Warm Springs. We know our selves as Wanalama.

Aumatash kuc'k washapashukan nami tananmamiki. Auxi pam qashukan tun tun nawa tananawit Nch' Wanaknii.
We have shared with you just a short information about our Indian people. Now you have little information of who we are from the Columbia River. Today known as Warm Springs.

Te moomooatupuwitoo yadoakwe.
Today we will talk about our ancestors.

Mu Numo onosoo tu tuka'nama nane'a.
Our people were named for the food in their area.

Umu yamosawitu, kedutuka'a.
The people from Ft. Bidwell, CA, are called "groundhog eaters."

Susumudu yatu "tuhudya tukadu," mee nane'a.
Some people from here are called the "deer eaters."

Ya mu wadatuka'a, Boinwitu.
There's the "sead eaters," from the Burns are.

Ewa'yoo Numu, nume ki nema'yu.
There's lots of bands of Paiutes we didn't mention.

Mu Numu onosoo kwa'ya mesoo sogonume.
The Paiutes roamed all over this territory.

Umu nonotse ki sumukwi nobekadu.
Our people were nomads, never stayed in one place too long.

Ka tepuma nadu umu tumatapoo'e.
Our people made many things from the land.
