Warm Springs Elementary School students made signs following the World Series, in which Jacoby Ellsbury was a star player on the world champion Boston Red Sox. The Madras High School White Buffalo junior varsity football team then took the signs on their road trip. The team stopped for free tacos at Taco Bell. Ellsbury stole a base in game two of the World Series, earning everyone a free taco.

Country band Highway 101 comes to resort

They have been recognized as Vocal Group of the Year by the Country Music Association and the Academy of Country Music a total of four times.

They have toured with the likes of Randy Travis and George Strait.

And on Friday, Nov. 16, the group Highway 101 will bring their musical act to Kah-Nee-Ta High Desert Resort and Casino.

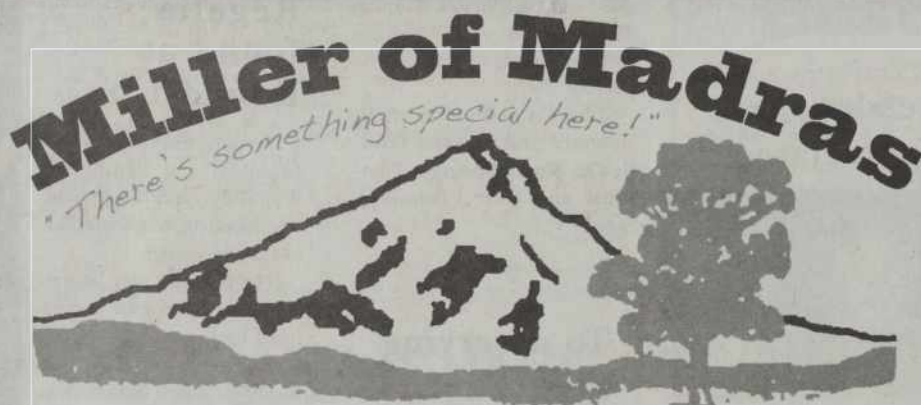

Highway 101 will perform one show at 9 p.m. on Nov. 16 in the Gold Ballroom at Kah-Nee-Ta. Tickets are $15 in advance, or $20 the day of the show (based on availability) and are available in person or by calling 1-800-554-4783.

All seating is general admission (doors open at 8 p.m.), and the show is limited to people age 21 and over. An overnight package is available for $109 for two people, including deluxe lodging and two tickets to the concert.

With hits like Whiskey, If You Were A Woman and The Bed You Made For Me, Highway 101 has entertained audiences for more than 20 years. The band's self-titled debut album yielded four top five hits, including two number one songs: Somewhere Tonight and Cry, Cry, Cry.

In 1988 and 1989, Highway 101 was recognized as Vocal Group of the Year by both the Academy of Country Music and the Country Music Association.

They are also two-time Grammy nominees for Best Country Album (Highway 101-2) and Best Country Single (Honky Tonk Heart).
