

Runner up at Golden Gloves

Jasper Smith took second place in the Golden Gloves Regional Boxing Tournament in Mesquite, Nev.

Smith won his first match on Saturday, March 29, by decision.

He advanced to the championships on Sunday, and went up against the Washington State Golden Glove champion from Tacoma.

They boxed for four rounds, and it was a very close fight, with Smith losing narrowly by decision, said boxing coach Austin Smith. Spectators and fight officials agreed that this was the best fought bout of the weekend. Smith took home the runner-up trophy, and special trophy for having fought in the best fight of the tournament.
