

Johnson wins bout at Hillsboro

Oits Johnson of the Warm Springs Boxing Club won his match recently in Hillsboro.

Johnson, fighting in the super heavyweight division, boxed Salvadore Lopez of Portland.

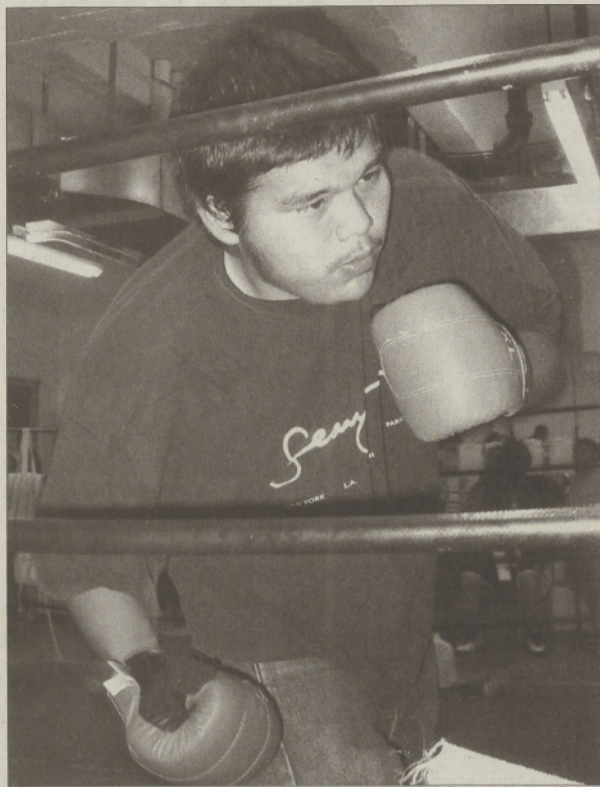

The three-round bout was the semi-main event at the Hillsboro tournament, said Warm Springs boxing coach Austin Smith.

It looked like Johnson may have lost the first round, but won the next two rounds, defeating Lopez for the second time this year.

Next from Warm Springs, Antone Scott, in the 140 pounds division for 10-11 year-olds, boxed Victor Lucas. This was the first match for both fighters, said Smith.

Scott lost the first two rounds, won the third, and now wants a rematch, he said.

Scott and other Warm Springs and regional boxers will compete on June 28 at the Warm Springs Community Center, during Pi-Ume-Sha boxing.

Oits Johnson trains in the boxing room of the Warm Springs Community Center.

Sha boxing.

There will be 15-plus bouts at the Pi-Ume-Sha event, said Smith.

All of the community support for the Warm Springs boxers is well appreciated, he said.
