

2008 Northwest Indian Youth Conference

The conference began with a parade through Warm Springs (picture above, and below at right).

The conference ended with a powwow at the Warm Springs ball fields (above and right).

An artist gave lessons on painting and graffiti during one workshop.

Shouting Native pride.

Photos by Leanna Boise, Tonya Thompson and Leslie Mitts

Youth gathered in discussion groups during the conference.

Craft lessons included beading.