A team of local pool players won the Wayne Schjoll Memorial Tournament recently.

Chief Smith, Pearl Van Pelt, Selena Boise and Louie Smith won the mixed doubles tournament hosted in honor of the late Wayne Schjoll over father's day weekend.

Schjoll was killed in a motor-cycling accident earlier this year. The well-known businessman owned several businesses, including the Rialto Tavern where the tournament was held.

Clint Smith and Karla Bagley-Tias served as tournament directors.

"It was to honor the memory of Wayne Schjoll," Smith explained. "His son wanted to have a memorial tournament so he asked me and Karla Bagley-Tias if we could put on a tournament in memory of him."

According to Smith, 17 teams played in the tournament, including teams from Washington, Portland and throughout Central Oregon—including several teams from Warm Springs.

Four people played on each team. During the double-elimination tournament, everyone on the winner's side completed matches in a race to win seven total matches. On the losing side of the bracket, teams competed to win 5 matches.

As for whether the event will be held again next year, Smith said he thinks that is very likely.

"That's still kind of up in the air right now but I think the family would like to make it an annual, yearly thing," Smith said.

Smith also wanted to thank all the players for participating, as well as the vendors who donated items for the raffle and for prizes, trophies, jackets, sweatshirts and t-shirts.

Thanks to all the players for participating. More than likely its going to be an annual thing. We want to thank a lot of the vendors that donated items for the raffle and for the prizes, the trophies and the jackets and sweatshirts and t-shirts.

A team from Washington took second place at the tournament, while Team Hideaway took third.

Youth tackle football league taking sign-ups

Jefferson County youth football is a tackle football league comprised of two age groups of players from Jefferson County. Fourth- and fifth-graders are combined; and sixth-graders have their own squad.

The league is sponsored by Bend Metro Park and Recreation District.

All equipment is provided, with the exception of mouth guards and shoes. Cost of the program is $110.

Practices are twice a week starting in mid August and last all season.

Games start in September and go through October and are played on Sunday afternoons in Prineville and Bend.

Applications can be picked up at the Spilyay Tymoo or the Madras Pioneer.
