Gathering addresses effect of boarding schools

The long-term effect of the old boarding school system will be explored at a gathering scheduled for Sunday, May 17 at the Warm Springs Elementary School gymnasium.

The event is called "The 1879-2009—Wellbriety Journey for Forgiveness and Healing from Boarding Schools."

Coordinating the gathering is Don Coyhis, president and founder of White Bison Inc.

As Coyhis explains, "The elders have told us, to be free from the effects of intergenerational trauma, forgiveness is necessary."

The gathering is being held in the elementary school gymnasium because the building is by the old boarding school buildings, said Guy Wallulatum, counselor.

The boarding school buildings now house tribal departments.

Everyone is welcome to come witness this event. The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, the Community Counseling Center, the Museum at Warm Springs and the Community Health Education Team are sponsors.

The gathering will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lunch will be served at noon.

For more information, please contact the Community Counseling Center at 553-3205.
