Isidore Kevin Charley, 1962-2009

In loving memory of our beloved husband, Pops, grandpa, brother, relative and friend, Isit.

Isit passed away on April 27, 2009 at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend. His wife and daughter were at his side.

Isit was born to Alvin Charley and Ina Culpus Charley Tohet.

His happiest times were his youth growing up in Celilo and learning from his grandmother.

He loved to fish, ride horses, travel, meet new people and work with youth. He enjoyed crossword puzzles and electronic games.

He always had a smile on his face and music in his heart.

He worked as a Hot Shot crew member then in later years as a Fire Management crew boss. In his youth, he traveled to many places as he had skills to be another baseball star with a major league team; other work became priority so this did not work out.

God blessed Faye and children by loaning Isit to her and family for six years of happiness. Their time was loving, caring, sharing and being best friends. There are many happy memories that will carry this family through their loss.

His core was his precious granddaughter, Fawntana, his wife, children by marriage and siblings.

He is survived by his wife, Faye of the home, Fawntana, his true love and granddaughter, WinnerJoe, Tasheena, Danielle and Chandla of Warm Springs, Vanessa Orange of McMinnville and Virgil Jr. of Iowa.

Surviving brothers are Bruce Jim, Olin Charley, Ian Tohet, Earl Charley and Doctor Shawn (Byron Frank) of Warm Springs. Sisters Melinda Jim, Minnie Charley and Barbara Charley Poncho of Warm Springs; Sally Medina and Rachel Charley of Portland and many nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, aunts and friends.

Preceding him in death were his father, Alvin Charley, mother Ina Tohet, and sister Joanne Casey.

His final resting place is at the Simnasho Cemetery on May 1, 2009.
