

'Art of Ceremony' exhibit opening June 25 at museum

The Museum at Warm Springs will host the opening of a new exhibit, The Art of Ceremony, next Thursday, June 25.

The Oregon Arts Commission has selected The Art of Ceremony as the 2008 National Endowment for the Arts American Masterpiece project.

With the Museum at Warm Springs, the upcoming exhibit is courtesy of The Hallie Ford Museum of Art, and Willamette University.

"The Art of Ceremony: Regalia of Native Oregon is an unprecedented exhibition of historic and contemporary ceremonial regalia from, and selected by, Oregon's nine federally recognized tribes," said Rebecca Dobkins, curator of the Hallie

Seven Drums display is part of The Art of Ceremony exhibit.

"As Oregon's 2008 National Endowment for the Arts American Masterpieces Project, The Art of Ceremony presents the region's tribal regalia as masterworks of American art," said Dobkins.

The objects in the exhibition—collectively referred to as "regalia"—include clothing, items of personal adornment and implements used in ceremonies. Many of the items come directly from individual and family collections, and are regularly part of ongoing ceremonies.

The Museum at Warm Springs invites you to attend the June 25 opening reception on the museum grounds.

Activities will include a "Walk of Nations," starting at 11 a.m., followed by the exhibit opening, light salmon lunch and round dancing.

Regalia is welcome for the Walk of Nations, but is not required. Horses are welcome. The event is free and open to the public.
