

The Art of Ceremony

The nine federally recognized tribes and tribal confederations of Oregon submitted regalia, drums and other ceremonial items to the Museum at Warm Springs exhibit, The Art of Ceremony, on display until September.

The Oregon Arts Commission selected The Art of Ceremony as the 2008 National Endowment for the Arts American Masterpiece project. With the Museum at Warm Springs, the upcoming exhibit is courtesy of The Hallie Ford Museum of Art, and Willamette University.

The exhibit is a first of its kind in the state. If you have questions about the exhibit, please call Natalie Moody, museum curator and exhibits coordinator, at 553-3331, ext. 412.
