

Place for Kids school hours

The Place for Kids is accepting sign-ups for the school year.

The Place for Kids, in partnership with the Portland Metropolitan Area Boys and Girls Club, will open on the first day of school, Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Place for Kids membership fee is $30 per member (valid until the end of the school year.)

Club hours are 3:15-6 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

For more information, please call 553-2323.

Drum making class

The Museum at Warm Springs and the Siletz Tribal Charitable Contribution Fund this month present Adult-Youth Drum Making. The class, featuring instructor Fred Wallatum, will be from 1 to 4 p.m., Tuesday-Thursday, Aug. 25-27. Classes will be conducted in the museum education room and on the museum grounds. You may register for the class by calling the museum at 553-3331. Or stop by the education program at the museum.

Youth football sign-ups

Jefferson County Youth Football is a tackle football league comprised of two age groups of players from Jefferson County (fourth- and fifth-graders combined, and sixth-graders). The league is sponsored by Bend Metro Park and Recreation District. All equipment is provided, with the exception of mouth guards and shoes. Cost of the program is $110.00.

Practices are twice a week starting the week of August 24, and last all season. Games start in September and go through October and are played on Sunday afternoons in Prineville and Bend. Applications can be picked up at The Madras Pioneer. The deadline for signing up is August 20. For more information, contact Carl Lindgren at 475 7379.

A new ambulance arrived last week at Warm Springs Fire and Safety. The state-of-the-art vehicle cost $155,000. The purchase was made possible through a grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the tribes, said Dan Martinez, fire chief. Pictured above with the new vehicle are Cpt. John Miller, Lt. Kirk Hagman, firefighter-paramedic Tyler Hordichok, and firefighter-EMT Crystal Thomas (from left).

Nurses join Community Health

Dave McMechan/Spilyay

Nurses Juanita Wood and AnnaMarie Wallace have joined the Community Health Department.

Two Registered Nurses have joined the staff of the Community Health Department at the Warm Springs Health and Wellness Clinic. Nurses Juanita Wood and AnnaMarie Wallace joined the Community Health staff last week.

The nurses will be conducting upcoming flu-shot clinics and immunizations for students, and making home visits and follow-ups with patients, among other tasks, said department director Roberta Queahpama.

Nurse Wallace lives in Metolius, and has worked at Mountain View Hospital in Madras, and St. Charles in Redmond.

Nurse Wood comes to Warm Springs from Prineville, where she worked at the Crook County Public Health Department.

To contact one of the nurses, call the clinic at 553-1196.
