

Wintery Scene

Recent winter storms blanketed the Museum at Warm Springs in snow.

VOCS to host men's support group

A men's support group will begin meeting in January at the Victims of Crime office. The first meeting will be on Jan. 20; and later meetings will be on Feb. 17 and March 17. Times are from 6-8 p.m. For more information, or if you have any questions, feel free to call the Victims of Crime office at 541-553-2293.

Extension in Redmond hosting series on successful farm management

Oregon State University Extension in Redmond will present "Growing Farms: Successful Whole Farm Management Series," beginning in January. The course will provide beginning specialty crop and livestock farmers with tools and knowledge to manage the biological and financial risks of farming. Participants will assess their farm enterprise and gain the ability to develop a whole farm plan. The class dates are Wednesdays, as follows: Jan. 26; Feb. 2, 16 and 23; and March 2 and 9. Times are from 5-9 p.m. There will be a farm tour on Saturday, Feb. 12. For information, contact Dana Martin at 541-548-6088, ext. 7957.

Native Hawaiians move ahead with nation building

HONOLULU (AP) — Native Hawaiian leaders plan to start forming their own new but unrecognized government following the failure of federal legislation to do so. Office of Hawaiian Affairs trustee Haunani Apoliona on Tuesday called for the state-funded agency to sign people up to enroll as participants in the formation of a future Hawaiian government. A previous effort, called Kau Inoa, gathered 108,000 signatures of people showing interest in a Hawaiian governing entity, but this new process will go a step further by creating the structure of the Hawaiian government.
