Tribal canoe dedication on Saturday

The N'Chi Wanapam Canoe Family and the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs will host the 2011 canoe dedication this Saturday, March 26 at Indian Park.

There will be a salmon bake and giveaway, and canoe heritage and cultural presentations.

Muckleshoot, Puyallup, Nisqually and Tulalip tribal members are expected to attend.

The Canoe Family is preparing for the Paddle to Swinomish, set for July 25-31.

There are currently about 50 members of the N'Chi Wanapam family, including the pullers and the ground crew. The family welcomes new members.

Call Jefferson Greene at the Museum at Warm Springs for information, 541-553-3331.

The Social Hall at the Community Center was hoppin' last Wednesday night to the sounds of 1950's music being spun by DJ Medina. This and other events (like the all-night lock-in) are brought to you by the Prevention Coalition.
